1. Beginning A New Job

Hello, so this will be a Hiccstrid modern AU story. Hiccup's name will be Henry Haddock, but nicknamed Hiccup. Astrid will still be Astrid. Here we go.

Astrid POV

I don't remember the last time I enjoyed the company of others. After my mother's death, I was left with my father who wasn't of much help. Even being my father, we didn't get along. It either ended with me yelling at him or him yelling at me. I lived in my father's house, you'd ask why didn't I run away. We'll I had no money, the university was taking most of it. So I made a plan, finish my masters and get a job. I would live near my job and I would finally release my pain. And finally today was the day. Today I had gotten a job at Berkshire, doing my job as martial arts assistant.

As soon as I got the letter, I took out my luggage and started packing. I was home alone, with my father at a bar as always. I just stuffed all my clothes in the luggage and took out to the car. I put it in the trunk and went back inside taking all my other personal belongings. Soon after an hour my whole room was in my car. I quickly took the keys, shut the door and drove off. I did not leave a note or any sign of my return. I just left.

The drive was about a day away, stopping at McDonalds to do any of my necessities. I soon stayed in a hotel in Shores, a little town outside of Berkshire. I stayed their the night, paying it with my credit card. Once I got into the room, I took a shower and went to sleep. Woke up early morning ready to go to my new home. Berkshire.

I drove to where my job was. It was a small mall in the middle of town. The dojo was called Berk. I knocked on the door, to it to open a young man. He was taller than me with auburn hair, green eyes, and freckles. "I'm sorry, we are closed right now. But you can come around by 10" he says

"Uh, I'm actually here for the job. I'm Astrid Hofferson. Are you Stoick" I ask him

He laughs, well that's new. "Stoick, no. That's my father. So, um, you can come in. I'll just call him, right now. Dad,the girl for the job is here" he says as he lets me in.

He signals to one of the seats in front of the dojo and I sit. "By the way, my name is Henry, but my friends call me Hiccup"

I take out my degree and the email they sent me from my bag, along with an ID. "Hiccup, how did you get that nickname for hiccuping a lot." I say

He chuckles and says "Exactly, I'll go get my dad"

He goes back, and I hear noises from back. Out from where Hiccup came comes a big man, and I mean big. He sits in front of me and says "So your Astrid. Graduated from Beserker University with a masters in Martial Arts. Right"

"Yes, sir" I respond

"Well, you seem qualified enough. Welcome to Berk Dojo" he says as he stands up

I quickly stand up and shake his hand. "Thank you sir"

"You start tommrow, but my son will show the basics today, Henry"

"Ok, sir"

"I have to go to do an errand, so Henry your in charge for now"

"Yes Dad" I hear from the other room

"Bye sir" I say as he walk out.

From the back room comes Hiccup holding a white gi, and a black belt. "Here, this is what you'll be wearing when you come to work now."

I get it and say "Thank you"

I fold it and put it in my bag. "Come on, let me show you the back room" he says as he walk back to where he came from

"Okay" I say as I follow him.

We walk in to see a big mess of gis and belts. "Sorry, for the mess. It's been rough these days. That's why we needed an assistant"

"So it's just you and your dad here" I ask him

"No not really" he says as he stops infront of some lockers and signals to one "This will be yours"

Then he signals to he next "This one is mine, the next is Fredward's or as we call him Fishlegs, the next is Sergio's my cousin or as I like to call him Snotlout, the next is Trevor's or Tuffnut, the one beside it is Rachel, Tuff's twin sister, or as we call her Ruffnut."

"If you have so many people, why did you need me"

"Do you not want the job"

"No I do. It's just that"

"Well, Snot and the twins are really not helpful at all. It's only me and Fish who do most of the work"

"Oh" I say

"And this is the main part of the dojo, the training area." he says as he opens it.

It's this huge, it's like how I imagined my dojo would be one day. "It's beautiful" I say

Hiccup chuckles a little, then I hear a knock on the door. "Who's that" I ask

Then I hear a voice say "Hiccup can I come in"

In which Hiccup responds "Come on in Toothless, I'm in the training area. Put on your gi, let's train a little"

Toothless. What a weird name for a person, but all of the nicknames I've heard are weird, so I better get used to it. This is my new life and I like it.

That's all folks. What did you think? This is my first AU moderno story, so advice is thanked. Don't forget to review, fav, and follow. GOD BLESS YOU.

When I said, "My foot is slipping," your unfailing love,Lord, supported me. When anxiety was great within me, your consolation brought me joy.

2. Beginning To Meet New People

So more Begin Again. Thanks for everyone's support and to

Hiccstrid20-thx for being my first reviewer. And yes I do put a verse at the end of every chapter in most of my stories, including this one.

So here's more.

o0o0o0909p9p

I look at Hiccup in a confused face. "Um, his actual name is Timothy, but you'll see why I call him Toothless."

"Who are you talking to, she sounds female. Did you finally get a girlfriend?" Toothless asks "Even though you probably should, your turning 26 next year. If you don't get married soon, you'll be alone when your old. I don't want to take care do completely _dad"_

_"_Dad" I say

"Uh, let me just. Toothless get in here"

"Wait let me just" then we hear some noise "There coming"

In comes a boy with dark black hair and vibrant green eyes. He was wearing a white gi, with a black belt. He looked pretty young around 12 year old. How could Hiccup have a son at 14? "So, uh Toothless this is Astrid the new assitnant trainer. Astrid, Toothless my adoptive son."

"So you have a son. That's different" I say

"Yeah, a lot of people say that when we meet. Oh, and haven't I told you you don't have to ask to come in" he says signaling to Toothless

"Last you told me to ask. So I asked." He said innocently

"Ug, fine. Let me just put on my gi and we'll get started" he said walking To the back

Once he was gone enough, Toothless came up to me. "He's different I know, even more so for having a son. But I don't think of myself as eh son, more like his martial arts teacher and best friend. He's been on a couple of dates, but most end when they see me. "

"So he has you because.." I ask

"Because he would go to Juvi instead" says Hiccup as he signals to Toothless, while coming out wearing his gi and black belt. But something looks different in him, his leg. It's different. It's fake.

"Wait, what. I don't get what your saying." I say

"Well, little Timothy here liked to steals cars, he was stealing mine when I found him and he ran me over. Making me lose my leg." he says lifting his left foot "When I woke up, they told me what I what charges I was going to put. That's when I turned to him, he was fighting out of the hand of the police men with karate. I didn't answer to the police but asked to see him instead."

"So I came up to him and he asked what I was doing in his car. I told him About how I lived on The streets, and all my past I prefer not to talk about. Then he told about The dojo and how if I helped him, he would put no charges. I agreed and he put no charges, instead he took me to his apartment in which we trained, until the competition began. Hiccup earned his first belt. We became great friends after that, but before we could do anything. Then one day I was walking down the street when The police was taking me to an orphanage, since I was underage. Until Hiccup decided to adopt me. So he adopt me And I am technically his son." Toothless says

"Before him I was terrible at karate, much to my father's dismay. He then taught me the ways of karate and since then I've been training with him. My father wasn't really exited to hear I had a child, but accept him one he saw his good intentions." he said

I wondered at them two such a different family, but so same at the same time. "So ready" Hiccup says

"Yeah let's do this" says Toothless

"Astrid would you"

"Yeah, sure" I respond "Go"

They start, at first Hiccup seems to be winning until Toothless some weird move in which Hiccup immediately stands back. He gets back to the position he was and he starts winning again. Until Toothless does one last move that throws Hiccup again. "Still got my charm"

Hiccup gets up "Ha, very nice Toothless"

"You to"

"So you got beat by a twelve year old." I say, as I chuckle a little.

"He's stronger than you think" he responds, "The leg doesn't help much either"

"And I'm not twelve,I'm 13" says Toothless

Then I realize he doesn't have his leg, but can still fight this good. That's a big accomplishment. "Yeah, so uh I'll come back tommrow if that's all I need to know" I say as I start walking to the door.

"Oh, yeah and Astrid"

"Yeah, Hiccup" I ask

"You start tommrow at 9,okay"

"Okay"

"Oh, and we need your phone number if we need anything"

"Oh, okay. Let me just" I say as I take out and write on a piec of paper "Here"

"Okay, bye Astrid

"Bye, Hiccup. Bye, Toothless"

"Bye, Astrid"

With that I walk out hearing a few grunts on the way. It was still morning around 10, so I explore around town. I went to a few shops and looked for a place to Stay. I asked around for a good hotel, when they said the main Carlton. Around 9 at night I go and see if they have any rooms. The lady says they do and that it would be $350 a night. I agree and handy credit card. She scans it and gives me my room key. I go up to my room laying my bag and a luggage down. I lay on the bed when my phone rings. Unknown it be, Hiccup. I open the phone and say "Hello"

"Where are you?" I hear another voice in e line say

"Dad" I ask

I hear no response, it's just a clear call. Can it be, he's tracking it. I immediately hang up, and throw my phone out the window. Even with his cop abilities he will never find me. I need to get out of here, he might be on his way here.

Okay, so that is it. So Toothless is Hiccup's adoptive son, that will come in handy. Astrid's dad is a cop. So that's all for today. GOD BLESS YOU.

Astrid POV

I quickly run out of hotel room only getting my bag. I run to the elevator and take it down. Tears are rolling down cheeks, I can't go back. I can't live like that anymore. I run out of the elevator to the car. It was raining hard, but I didn't care. I got to my car and opened the door. I went in it, shut the door and put the key in. I turn it, nothing. I turn it again, nothing. My car is not turning on. It's not turning on. "AHHHHHH, TURN ONYOU FRICKEN CAR" I say as I hit the wheel "TURN ON"

I hit the car multiple times, "WHY AREN'T YOU TURNING ON"

Then I hear a knock on my window. I turn to see a man in a black suit holding an umbrella, he then says "Are you okay"

I turn to him, he seems familiar. I open my door and I look at him "Hiccup" I say

"So it is you" he says as he puts the umbrella over me "What's wrong, why are you crying. "

I wipe the tears from my eyes and say "I don't really want to talk about it. I just have to get out of here"

I start to walk away from him, but he comes trailing behind me. "Astrid, you can tell me anything, trust me" he says as he gets my shoulder

"How can I trust you, I just met you this morning" I say as I start walking away, more running.

"Okay, then" I hear him say from behind me

I keep running down the street, when I slip on a puddle. "Ahh" I say as I fall.

I fall and stand up once more, I see myself. I'm mostly soaked in water. Then I immediately see the curb beside me and I go and sit down. I just sit down watching the rain going through my feet. The water is cold and dirty, but I didn't care. My life was over, I didn't care anymore. I just wanted this to end. As I feel hope to start going away, I feel no more rain. I turn up to see him again. "I told you, to leave me alone." I tell him.

But he doesn't listen, he just sits beside me. Suit and all. "Don't you get it. I'm telling you to leave, and yeah I quit."

He doesn't say anything, but just keeps the umbrella on top of us. I can stand his silent. "GO AWAY" I say as I pushed him, which made him land on the floor.

His suit was now completly drenched in cold dirty water. He quickly got up and sat beside my once more "So you want to go to Starbucks to talk about this" he says

How can he still be here? I just pushed him into dirty sewage water? I just. I broke down, I start to sob and cry and yell. My hands were in my face, and I didn't care who saw me. I didn't care what they thought.

I was like that for a few minutes, when a feel a hand on my shoulder. I turn over, he's still here. "So" he says

Then I remembered his offer, but I had no money. I couldn't use any of my credit cards, he could obviously track them. "I don't have any money" I say

"I'll pay for it, just tell me what's wrong" he says as he stands up and gestured his hand

i think about it, can I trust him. Well, I got no one else. I get his hand and pull me up, "Okay"

I walk beside him, for about a block when we reach a Starbucks. He opens the door and I walk in. He walks over to a table and pulls out a chair, I look over to him and he nods. I sit and he pushes me in. "So, what coffee" he asks

"Uh,Chai Latte" I respond

"Okay" he says

I see him walk over to the counter and ask for both. The Starbucks is empty other for the workers and us. The music is a little loud, with 'Stay With Me'. He the walks over with both coffees, "Here's your Chai"

I get it and drink a little, and I put it back on the table. Then I turn to him who's just looking at me. "So" he says

"Your not going to stop until I tell you will you" I say

"Yeah, I have a sort of stubbornness issue"

"I noticed" I say as I take another sip

There's an awkward silence in between until he says "So what brings you to Berkshire"

I agreed to tell him, so should I. "New beginning" I say

"What's so wrong with your past"

He wasn't going to let me pass by was he. "Family Problems"

"Oh, so what is it"

"What is what"

"The problem with your family, parents, siblings"

"Uh, my father"

"So what dose he do"

"He's a person, who has a job"

"I thought so" he said sarcasticly

"You know that your sarcasm, won't make me say anything. Right"

"Well, your saying something. Rather then pushing me off the curb"

"true"

"So what's the matter with your father, why we're yelling at your car. Why we're you running out of the elevator to your car"

The elevator, I remember he just saw me I my car. "What do you mean, the elevator. You only saw me in the car, are you stalking me mister"

"No, of course not. But that's not important right now, just tell me what's wrong"

I was about to tell him, when I hear a siren. I shiver a little and he says "So your father's a cop, then"

"How did you know"

"The way you moved when the cop car past by. You were scared. What has your father done to you"

He knew too much, he now could not go until he knew what my father had done. "He's a... alchoholic" I say

Dang it. Why did i just say that? "So he treats you bad at home" he says in a compassionate manner.

"Yeah"

"So you left home, as soon as you graduated and you got a job at my father's dojo" he says

"Pretty much"

"So why are you running around town, crying"

"He's... He's just... I CAN.T LIVE HERE ANYMORE, HE'S COMING AFTER ME AND TAKE ME BACK HOME. I CAN'T LIVE LIKE THAT ANYMORE" I scream as I stand up and start walking out the door.

I hear he door close behind me, I keep walking in the rain. "Astrid, let me help you" I hear him Say

I keep walking, until he runs in front of me. "I can help you. What do you need, a home, clothes, a working car"

How can he still be here? Doesn't he know that I just want to be left alone to die? Even though how can he offer me so much, he works for his father. "What?" I say

"Astrid, you can stay in my apartment. If you don't take your car or anything that can be tracked like a credit card, you can hide in my Apartment"

He's willing to hide me. His willing to help me. His willing to change his world to help a woman he even knows. How can he be so helpful? He doesn't even know what's happening to me, but he's helping me. What if I say yes, will that be wrong. Do I even have any other choice, I'm going to end I the streets if I don't go with him. "Okay" I whisper

"Good now do you need anything extra clothes"

"Actually I do, I left them all in the car and hotel room" I say

"Okay then, let me just" he says as he hands me the umbrella "Here"

He takes out his phone and dials "Hello" he says

"Hey Ruff, is the store still open"

"Okay, keep it open I'm on my way"

He closes the phone and says "Come on, the Macy's is just a block away"

"Macy's"I say

"Yeah a friend of mine works there, Rachel, Trevor's sister"

"But Hiccup I don't have any money. I only have credit cards and you said not to use them"

"Don't worry, I'll buy them"

"What, how can you"

"Don't worry about it, I have enough money"

We walk for a while, until we get to a Macy's. He tries to open the door but it's locked. He knocks and then a girl in black skinny jeans and a green shirt, with black heels, long blonde curly hair. She's chewing gum and has some key. She opens the door, and we walk in. "I see why you called" she says "What happened and who's this"

"Don't want to talk about it. This is Astrid, the girl I told you about."

"Oh, the other girl finally. My name is Rachel, but call me Ruff" she says

"Uh, okay" I respond

"So what can I help you with" she says

"Astrid here needs a whole new wardrobe" he says

"Oh, okay. Come with me to upstairs to the ladies department and Hiccup go get a new suit" she says

I see him walk down the hall, and Ruff pulls me to the staircase. We walk up and gets to The woman department. "Isn't this going get you in trouble" I say

"Ah, if it does. It's work number 36" she responds "Now what style do we want for you"

"Uh" I respond

"I have a great idea, go to the dressing room. I'll get you clothes and pass it to you" she says as she pushes me to dressing room "I'll be right back"

I take off my shirt and pants witH my black Keds."Here" she says as she hands me some clothes.

I try them on, to big. "It's to big" I say

"That's a size 3 are you sure"

"Yeah, are your calling me fat"

"No, it's just that. We'll let me just" she says as she runs away.

She passes me more clothes, pile after pile. I keep some, I throw some. Then she passes me a red dress. It's beautiful. It's a long red strapless dress. It so simple, yet so elegant. I quicly put it on and see in the mirror. I need a bigger one. I walk out to only be greeted by Hiccup sitting on one of benches, in a new suit. "Ahh" I say

He looks at me for a while, he looks so dumbfounded. "Hello" I say as I wave my hand in front of his face.

He doesn't say anything, but instead I hear a "Girl, you look fabulous"

"Where is a bigger mirror" I ask

"To the left"

"Astrid you look.." Says Hiccup "You look beautiful"

"Did I not look beautiful before" I say as I walk to the mirror

"No, it's just that"

"It's okay, Hiccup. It's beautiful isn't. How much is it Ruff" I ask

"Oh, that one is $950 to $1,500"

It's way to expensive. I'm already taking to much. I can't have Hiccup buy me this. "Oh," I say

"Hey, if you like it. I'll take it" I hear Hiccup say

"I can't do that, Hiccup. Your nice and all but this is to much" I say as I walk back to the dressing roo and take it off throwing it out of the room

I put my clothes back on and walk back out. "Are you sure you don't want it" he asks

"Yeah, I'm sure" I say

"Okay then. How much will it be Ruff" he asks

"With her stuff and the suit. It will be $10,895.35"

i choke on my own saliva "What" I say

"It's okay" he says as he passes over his _debit card_.

He passes me a baG, while the rest are in a little cart Ruff had for us. It was from a Walgreens, nice Ruff. We walk out to the door, with Ruff trailing behind. We walk out and Ruff closes the door. "Hiccup, how are you going to pay all that"

"Don't worry about it, I already told you. Come on we're close to my apartment" he says

We walk for a while, how can he be so nice. Why was he looking like that when I was wearing the dress. Does he like me. "We're here" he says as we get to a huge building 'EWM Properties', looks really fancy. How can he afford all of this?

So that's all for today, this was a pretty long chapter. So Hiccup is pretty rich, why? You'll see. Astrid's going to stay with him, so we'll see how that works. GOD BLESS YOU.

Great peace have those who love your law, and nothing can make them stumble.

4. Beginning To Realize

So sorry for the delay in update. I'll just say starting September 2, updates will vary since I'm entering school. Reason for such a delay, orientation. So uh, that's all review response.

angryhenry-I might get into more of that idea in his chapter

wayside.2-thx, God bless you

Hiccstrid20-lol, he is too nice. but tat's just how I imagine Hiccup

Xxdounutsxx-appreciate the support

Guest-hope you like this too

0o0o0o0o0o0o

We leave the Walgreens Cart outside and carry all the bags in. Hiccup opens the door and I walk in, marble floors, big chandelier on the ceiling, and I doorman. "Goodnight, . Miss" he says

"Goodnight, Charles" Hiccup responds

We get to the elevator and Hiccup presses the button, the elvator opens and we walk in. He presses floor 9, the last floor. As we reach up we hear muffeled voices "Hookfang where are you? No, you get that and that"

"Kids" says Hiccup as the door opens to reveal a boy lying the couch with a headset and a contol in hands. "Barf, on your other side. Blech watch out"

I see Hiccup walk over to the boy and take off the headset and say "Guys go to sleep or I'll tell your parents tomorrow."

Wait that kid was his son, right. Toothless"Didn't I tell you to go to sleep at ten" Hiccup tells him

"Yeah, but you were taking long at the meeting. So I thought a little game wouldn't hurt. It's barley" he says as he turns around to see the clock say 11:30 "Oh"

"Come on, get to bed" he say as he signals to the hallway

he then turns to see me "Hey, what is she doing in here" he says

"She staying with us for a while" he responds

"Hi" I wave at him

"I have no idea what your doing, but goodnight" he says as he runs to a room. Before he reaches it he goes to a knob and turns a knob making the lights dim.

"Toothless" says Hiccup

"Just helping you bro" Toothless responds

I chuckle a little, Hiccup grunts and goes turn on the lights. "There" he says

I look around at the room better, there was three big couches, a huge flat screen tv, every console you could ever think about, every video game, and a huge kitchen behind. "So I'm just wondering, how can you pay his if you work at a dojo" I ask "i'm not trying to be rude but"

"It's okay, I have a lot of people ask me that. I don't work for any certain company, I get hired by companies to create new game consoles or video games or soft wares." h.e says as he walks to the kitchen and gets something from the drawer. "Here, your going to need this "

He hands me an iPhone,still in the case. "Don't say you don't want it. I'm going to need your phone number and the room you will be styling is over here " he says as he walk down the hall.

"Thank-you" I respond

i follow him down the hall to a room "You will be staying in one of my guest rooms. Here's the key. If you need anything I'm be in that room" he says as he signals to te other door

"Okay" I say as I get the key

Hoccup walks to his room, leaving me with the door. I open it to see paintings everywhere. There was a bed, side tables, a closet, mirror, a bathroom, and a tv with more consoles and games. I look closer at the paintings, they were dragons. One of them was black, one was red, another blue, an one was a orangy red color. "I'm the black one" I hear a voice at the door say

"Ahh" I say to realize it's only Toothless "Aren't you supposed to be in bed"

"Yeha, but aren't you supposed to be in Hiccup's room"

"Excuse me" I say

"What you can totally see it in the way he sees..."

"Toothless" he heard hiccup say behind him

"Okay, hehe gooodbye" he says as he walks past Hiccup and to his room

"Sorry for that" he says

"It's okay" I say "Um, why do you have so many paintings of dragons. I've seen them before, maybe at an art expo. By that famous painter"

I see Hiccup, he's looking a little nervous while telling me this. "These were by the amazing artist called Valka"

Then it hits me Valka Haddock. Wait Haddock. Isn't he Henry Haddock. "Hiccup are you related her becuase I remember her name is Valka Haddock, isn't it"

Hiccuo walks up to te orangey reddish one "Yeah, she was my mother"

Was. Did she die. "I'm so sorry for bringing that up" I say

"No it's okay. You didn't know. But yeah she was a great artist, but one day she got kidnapped by trying to protect me and we have never found her. Most people say that she's dead, but not me. I believe she's still out there" he says as he looks more at the dragon. "I just keep these to not forget her"

"Oh" I say. I didn't know his mother had died, seems like we have something in common. Hiccup is just looking at the painting and then he shakes his head. "So okay, uh goodnight" he says as he walks out the door

I still feel like that sometimes. How I miss my mom, but I try to get the better out of it. I put the bags on the bed and take out a change of sleepware. I close the door and put it on.

Crash. What the. I open my door to see Toothless peeking out of his. Then we hear a "Dang you fricken, leg" from inside Hiccup's room.

I look at Toothless, who's face is now on the downside of sadness. He walks over to the door and knocks "Everything okay, dad"

Then we hear a different noise and "Yeah, I just forgot to put on my leg before I stood up"

"Oh, okay" Toothless says as he goes back to his room.

I stay at the door, just looking into the hallway. Then I hear a door open, oh great. I close my door, to hear a person walk to another room. I determined it was Hiccup since one step sounded different to the next. Then I hear the door shut for a moment and open again. I open my door to see Hiccup in some sort of black pajamas. He looks good, even without a suit. Wait, what. We look at each other for a moment as if we had never meet, the darkness made it even worse. Then Hiccup said "Need anything Astrid"

Then I think to myself, what I hadn't told him "Um, no but. Thanks, for everything"

"No problem"

"But why? Why would you help me? A girl who pushed you into dirty sewage water."

Then he's imediatley answered "I don't like to see people suffer. Goodnight Astrid"

He then abruptly walked to his door and shut it. "Uh, goodnight" I say i close my door and walk to my bed, I leave the iPhone charging and lay down. I put myself under my covers. The sheets were so soft, I could just lay here forever. I then think of Hiccup, why did he answer like that. Is he hiding something. Sure I'm hiding a lot of my past, but his life seems okay. What is wrong with him?

Stuff we realized in this chapter. Valka was an artist, and she was kidnapped. Hiccup is a rich video game software inventor, something along those lines. Astrid is hiding a lot more than we asked for. Toothless is just well, Toothless. Sp that's all for today. GOD BLESS YOU.

5. Beginning A New Morning Routine

Hey more Begin again. Review responses

Mylittledragon- Thx, for the review. So what I'm seeing is that you want longer chapters so this might be around 2,000 words. Most of my chapters are 1,000-1,500 max, but if you want more. I'll try to make it 2,000

Angryhenry-something like that

Unbreakable Warrior-thx.

Guest-Call it whatever you'd like it, but she got no money and is hiding from *her father

Larissa-thx,here's your update

I open my eyes to see darkness. "What" I manage to say. I touch the table until I reach the phone. I turn it on 5:30, great. Well, I should take a shower. I get up and go to the bathroom and take a shower. I change and clean the room. My outfit is a plain red shirt and Levi's, with black Vans. I then see the phone again 6:15. I open my door to hear "_I'm hooked on a feeling, I'm high on believing"_

The weird thing is, is that there are two voices. One them is really off key and one them sounds recorded. Once, I look outside I see a Toothless only in boxers, walking to me. "He does this every morning." He says as he walks to the bathroom., minding his own business.

I walk to where the sound came, which was the kitchen. I then see Hiccup signing "_But I don't need no cure.I'll just stay a victim"_

I stand on the side of the kitchen, just leaning against the wall. Enjoying the show that he was giving. Getting out a pancake mix, and using the spatuala as a microphone. I laugh silently, and just keep looking at him. Then he turns around to see me, and he doesn't stop. Instead he walks to me and gets my hand. "No, Hiccup"

"Come on it'll be fun"

He gets me and keeps singing off key."_I said I'm hooked on a I'm high on believing"_

The dance lasted for like 3 seconds as the song came to an end. "See that wasn't that bad" he says

I sat down on the chair beside the counter and then I realize, so this is what's it's like to have fun. This is what's it's like to be happy. To enjoy your life. To be with people you love. Wait,love. Do I love...

"So Astrid, how do you like your pancakes" he asks making me lose my train of thought

The last time I ate pancakes had been about 5 year ago. When my mom was okay, she was home and my dad was well not as bad as now. She made me breakfast before I left to school, of strawberries. "Do you have Strawberry" I ask

"In fact, I do" he says

He take out a packet of strawberries and blueberries. He then puts the mix into the pan and lays the blueberries. He then cooks it and places it on a plate, putting a lid over it. "It's for Toothless" he says he then makes mine and hands it to me. "And you" I say

"Yeah, let me just take out the banana." He says as he gets some bananas from the other side of the counter.

I start to take a bite out of my pancake, when he says "Milk, Coffee, what would you like to drink?"

"Coffee" I say

"Okay"

He then takes out milk and a little Kurig Cup. He put the little cup in the Kurig and a cup under it, then takes out milk. He then gets in the cupboard chocolate mix and a cup. He pours some milk and then mixes the chocolate. He then puts it next to the blueberry pancake. "Dad, do I have to go to school". I hear Toothless whine as he walks to the kitchen and sits where his plate is.

"We've been through this, it's the law. You don't want to go to Juvi, again"

"Fine, but if that girl comes up to me again she is so gonna pay" he says as he lifts the lid from his plate

"What have. I told you, it's girl you can't do that"

Then I say "What's wrong with her anyway"

Toothless looks at me and says "Her name is Stephanie she thinks so much about herself, and she so buggy. There's a bunch of guys and she always has to get my hat. Why does she take out my hat."

I chuckle a little "What's so funny" he says

"Nothing" I say as I bite into the pancake.

She totally likes him, and he thinks she's annoying. Oh how classic. "Okay, bye. Hiccup" he says as he finishes the pancake and the chocolate milk.

"Bye, Toothless" he says as Toothless runs out the door. He was wearing a white shirt with a black leather jacket and denim jeans, with some black converse.

The seat that Toothless was in Hiccup occupies it. With him bringing two coffees and a plate. "So why did you actually laugh" he asks

"Oh, we'll isn't obious Stephaine likes him" I say

"Seriously" he aska

"Yeah, most girls are annoying to guys that they like"

"Oh" he says as he takes out a bite of his pancake "So, how was your night"

"Good" I respond as. I take a bite out of mine.

It was silent for a moment when I asked "So Hiccup who's going to be there when we get to work"

He looks at me as if I were to ask something else "Uh, no one or maybe Tuff. He likes sometime alone before work" he says

"So uh" I say "You know last night when I asked you, about helping me. What do you mean by, not seeing people suffer"

He took the last bite out of his pancake and took a sip of his coffe. He turned to me and said "There was this period of time, where I was extreme depressed. One time I even thought of killing myself. But thankfully that didn't happen. So I always wished that there was someone there for me. As in when I meet Toothless, everyone thought he was a criminal, an outlaw. But I saw something different in him, as I did in you. While most people looks at a person from the out side, I like I think that everyone has a story behind them. They all have things that changed them to who they are"

I realize what he just said. He saw hope in me. I used to always think that people just saw me for the person I was outside. But he seems to look at the world differently, I like that. "I just like for you to think of me more than a weird girl who screams at her car. i just would like to thank that" I tellhim

"So I think we should get going the dojo is a half hour drive away" he says as he signals to the clock 8:15.

"Okay, let me just get my bag" I say as I go back to my room

I go to the room and get he phone and a bag Hicup had bought me. Then I walk back out to see Hiccup waiting by the door, he was wearig a red shirt with a black flying figure in between and some black pants with black shoes. Nothing to extravagant. "Ready" hesays

"Yeah" I say as he opens the door, leading me out. We go to the elevator and go out "So where's our car" I ask

"Oh,it's right there" he says pontiff to a black Audi. He opens it and let's me in while he goes on the other side. We drive for a while, until I recognize the little mall. We stop and I was about to open the door when he opened it for me. "Thanks" I say

"Your welcome" he says

We walk to the entrance of the dojo and he takes out his key and opens it. I Then hear 'Sway' by Michael Buble. I look at him and he says "Follow ne"

We walk to training area to see a guy with sort if long blonde hair dancing with a broom. "_Make me sway_" he sings

I try bit to laugh, and so does Hiccup. Then we see him turn to us, "Hey, Hiccup. Uh, who's the girl" he asks as he shyly throws the broom aside.

"She's the new trainer astrid, and you forgot that I opened today didn't you." he says

"No, I just thogtthat since you've seen me dance before you wouldn't mind but I didn't know you brought a girl. Especially one so..."

"Trevor"

"So nice. Heghee. So uh, yeah your dad left a note saying why we were going to do."

"Okay. So ah Tuff go do something, just don't destroy anything. And Astrid you an change I'll go check what my dad wanted done"he says

I go get a new gI, and I change. I go out to see Hiccp openign the door letting little kids in. He soon tells me they are he 10/12 class, why so long because most of time they are picking there koses. Then we have teh adult classes and I see hat hey only have from 1-2:30. Then we have a lunch, in which Hiccup bought pizza for us three. Soon, three hit and Toothless comes in the door. "So how'd it go" Hiccup asks him

"Ph great, Stephaine wouldn't leave me alone."

I go over to the entrance leaving them some alone time. Then a girl come in blonde hair with green and blue highlights. She was wearing a spagetti strap shirt that was green and blue. She had bright blue eyes. She then says "I would like to sign up for a class"

I call Hiccup not knowing why to do"Hiccp, new student"

"Coming" he says

Hiccuo comes to us to tells "So you ready for a martial arts class"

"Yes, sir"

"Okay it will be $50 per class, plus he gi and other needs so it will be $100, what's your name"

"Stephaine, Stephanie Henderson"

"Stephaine, okay you can start today if you want." he says getting a gi from under the table "Here's your go, the dressing room is to the left"

She walks over leaving he mother who later paid. We boy stood there for a moment until an angry Toothless came out from the trainikg area. "Why is she here?" He said angrily

"Who" Hiccup asks

"Stephanie"

"Is she. Her"

"Yes, what is she doing I'm she dojo. I fricken hate her. Fire her or something"

"She's not an employe, she's a student. A new one so I'm going to make Astrid train her while I take you out for some ice cream."

"Wait what" I say

"Your going to train her, she's your student"

"Yeah, okay" I say a I go out back to the training area to see Stephaine already dressed.

"So you ready" I say

She turns it am and says "You startle me, and yes I am ready"

"Good" I says as Inwak to her

"So isn't Timothy going to be here" she says

Timothy. Who's Timothy. Oh right Toothless. "Um, no not right now. He went for ice Cream with his dad" I tespond

"Oh" she says as she walks to the mat I was in.

"So your going to do whatever I do okay" I tell her

"Yeah,okay" she says

she seems awfully distracted, she was looking at Toothless' backpack which was against the wall. "So you got a crush on him right" I tell her

She quickly shakes her head "Yes, how did you know. Am I too obvious "

"A little I respond"

"Great, so do you know what I should do to get him to talk to me" she says sitting criss crossed.

Now, I'm giving love advice, what's wrong with me. We'll I guess it wouldn't hurt, right.

so I just finished until here. Not leaving it in a cliff hanger but in a Wierd ending in my opinion. Why Intook so long to upload this a 2,000 word chapter takes a while. And also proffering this, which is hard since I'm writing this on my phone. Hehe. So that's all GOD BLESS YOU.

6. Beginning To Hang Out

Guess who's back? Mee. So after a long wait I have decides to update this. Yayaya. Because I need to continue this story. So I can continue the rest. **

O0o0o0o0o0

I am standing in front of the glass doors of the dojo, watching the rain hit the ground. As yesterday, it's raining. I was wondering where Hiccup and Toothless had gone for so long.

After a two hour class, correct that love therapy, it was time to go. Tuff had left a half an hour into he conversation, being annoyed about Stephanie's talks about Toothless' eyes, hair, skin, and what not. She was still changing into her normal clothes in the back. "Are my parents here yet" Stephanie asks as she comes out from the back

"Nope" I respond

Stephanie stands beside me also looking out the window. "It's not very fun flying through a storm" she says

Why would she think that? "What do you mean?" I ask

"One time I took a flight during a storm and we almost crashed" she pauses "My dad is a pilot"

"A Storm flight" I say

"Yeah"

"_Stormfly" _I whisper to myself

"What?"

"Oh, just nothing"

There was an awkward silence for a moment and then Stephanie said "Pretty cool name though, Stormfly"

She thought that was a name, it's pretty weird. But then again people have wired nicknames here. "You want me to call you Stormfly?"

"Really" she says Turing to me with a smile across her face.

"Sure,_Stormfly"_ I say as I spot something outside "Hey is that your mom"

Outside the dojo in the rain was a woman. Around her thirties you would say, wearing slacks and a blue button up shirt. Her face wasn't visible due to it being covered by her umbrella. "Yeah" she says as she opens the door "Bye Astrid"

"Bye Stormfly" I say as the door closes behind her. I see her walk to her mother hug her and they walk away.

My mom. I remember when I was little coming out of preschool and run I into her arms laughing.

"Mommy" I giggles as she runs to her mother

"Hey baby girl" she says as she picks me up "How was school"

"Fun, even though there was an annoying boy. I didn't like him. He kept calling me princess" I says as my mother lets me down and I crosses my arms

"Well let's hope he doesn't like you" her mother laughs

"Boys like me. Ewwww, they have cooties"

"Come on" she says trying to not giggle "Let's go home"

I am returned to the normal world seeing Hiccup and Toothless running to the dojo, half soaked. I open the door for them "You guys forgot your umbrellas" I say as they enter

"Well, I didn't think we would be out there so long" Hiccup says as he gets a spare towel from one of the cabinets.

"What, I didn't want to see her" Toothless says trying to get a towel, but Hiccup doesn't let him "Hey, let me"

"For his fault we had to be put in the pouring rain" he says telling Toothless to go sit because he was not giving him a towel.

"Fine" Toothless retorts as he sits on one of the wait benches

"So, how did it go" Hiccup says as he gets dried off

"Oh, good. Mostly because she wasn't here for the lessons, she was here for Toothless" I say

"What. No I am no longer coming to this dojo. I will fly away to an island an live there. I could become a dragon." Toothless says as he stands up walking to the door "Yeah that's what'll do. Bye Hiccup"

Before he could walk out the door, Hiccup gets him and carries him back to the seat he was in. "You sir aren't going anywhere. You can't just change your life for a girl" Hiccup says

"You've done it enough times" Toothless folds his arms

"That's a whole different thing, it has nothing to do with this" Hiccup responds in his defense.

What does Toothless means changing his life? What have women done to Hiccup? "Still" I say "She is crazy for you"

"Uggg" Toothless groans "Why me? Why not like Hookfang or Barf? Yeah they are good options. Well maybe not Barf, but maybe Hookfang will do"

"Hookfang?" I ask

"Yeah, he's my nephew. He's my cousin's son" Hiccup says

"Oh" I respond

"So can we go home now" Toothless says as he gets up again and walks to the back

"Yeah, but we are going to eat remember and you have to change they aren't going to enter like that"

"Wait where are we going"

"Sushi House"

"Yayay, SUSHI" I hear Toothless yell from the back

"He loves sushi" Hiccup tells me

"Oh, really"

"I'm ready" Toothless says as he runs to the entrance. He was now wearing a black shirt with a black dragon that said "Fastest Dragon Alive" and a pair of blue jeans, with black shoes.

I hadn't noticed Hiccup had gone off, but he said "Uh, I got the umbrella's but I only have two"

Toothless runs to him and gets one, runs out of the dojo. "Uh, I guess we're going to share then" he says

"Yeah" I say

He opens the door and hands me the umbrella. "Let me just lock up" he says as he turns of the lights and locks the door.

I give him the umbrella back and we walk side by side to his car. We could hear the rain hit the umbrella and the floor beside us. There were a few people here and there walking with umbrellas. In front of us Toothless running through the rain, with the umbrella flying out of his hands. I hear Hiccup chuckle and turn to him.

This is the first time I had ever seen him straight in the eyes with no distraction with no movement. He did the same. We had stopped walking and just stood there in the rain under the black umbrella.

His dashing green met my blue. My blonde met his auburn. It had seemed if the world stopped, until we heard "Hey are you guys coming or not. I'm hungry."

With that the moment was ruined, and we shook our heads and kept walking. "Uh, so Astrid. What is your uh. Favorite kind of smoochie...sushi. Sushi. Yeah, what is your favorite kind of sushi."

"It's a California Roll" I respond trying not to laugh

"Mine too" he says as he hands me the umbrella once more and gets the keys from his pocket.

He walks to the my door with Toothless now waiting at his door. He opens it and lets me in. I then sit and see him go next to Toothless. In which Toothless comments sarcastically "Smoochie, nice"

"Shut it, get in" he says as he pushes him in.

I try not to laugh at all of this, while he gets in. "So, let's go" he says Turing the car on and getting out of the parking lot.

The Windshield wipers were the only noise you could hear in the car. _Wish-wish-wish. _"So, Astrid" I hear Toothless say as he puts his head between the seats "What was your romantic life before this"

Choke on the question. "Tim, you don't ask that" Hiccup explains

"Hey you know I hate it when you call me that"

"No it's okay, Hiccup. I can tell him if you don't mind" I say

"No not at all. It's just that..."

"Tell me" Toothless says as he goes between the seats again.

"Okay, then well" I start. But I can't say my love life so I make one up. "So when I was about your age, Toothless. I used to like This boy, he was tall and had black eyes. He used to always wear this black cap that had a dragon on it. And I used to take it. Always. Every single day. I sort of started to get obsessed and started following him every where."

Hiccup turns at me, still driving with a confused look. I wink at him, I hope he got the sign. I turn over to Toothless and continue "So as the days went on, he kept going to other places. Then one day I saw him with another girl, or was he talking to just one of his friends. I don't remember. Anywho, I realized I could no longer live without him. So I just kidnapped him."

Toothless looks at me, and starts backing a away. "Youuu diidd whaatt" he stutters

"I kidnapped him. But he wouldn't love me or eat. Then he soon died, so I cut his head off and it's now on my room shelf. It's still there now" I say as I go turn back foward.

Toothless still confused by all this, try to say "Hiiccccuuuuppp, yooouu aren't woorororieedd or scaarreeed oooffff herrrr"

Hiccup shrugs "I think it's good thing to do. I mean if I person won't love you. You use force."

"You got to be kidding right" Toothless says

"Well, I would show a picture of him. But well you know my phone is dead. It's a pretty cool picture" I say nonchalant.

"Uhhhh" Toothless continues to say that for the rest of the ride.

"We're here" Hiccup says as he parks.

I get down and Hiccup does too. Toothless takes a while to get down and looks ay me suspiciously. He signals to Hiccup and whispers something in his ear. "Don't worry. I highly doubt she'll do that" he responds

We walk into the restaurant and we sit at a table. As we sit down I spot Stormfly. Must've come here with her mom. This is going to be hilarious. "Hey Toothless look it's Stephaine" I say as I nudge his shoulder and signal to het table.

He looks at her, she waves with one hand and in the other she has a knife. "AHHHHHHHH, SHE'S GOING TO KILL ME" he screams running out.

I turn to Hiccup who was helping me in, and we laugh so loud. Not caring of the other people who look at us worried as to why we are not running after him. Stormfly even looks at me confused. "I'll go get him" Hiccup says as he lets me in my seat.

As he's gone, Stormfly walks over to our table. She stands by means asks "What was all that"

"I gave Toothless this crazy girlfriend story that kidnapped and killed the guy she liked. He should be back to normal in a while." I respond

"Uh,okay. I'll just be at my table" she says as she goes back.

As she leaves I hear the front door open. Hiccup and Toothless coming in. Hiccup looks fine while Toothless is still a little terrified. They get to the table and sit down. "So you didn't kill the guy you liked" Toothless asks

"No. I just made that up so you don't treat Stephaine like that." I respond

Hiccup sits next to mr as Toothless sits in front of him. The waiter cokes by with the menus, he leaves. He comes back in a little while and we order, he leaves again. Once out food arrives, we eat. Conversations in between each not really necessary, only to state to Toothless that I wasn't a murder. Once we had finished eating Toothless said "So you were kidding"

"For the last Toothless, I was kidding. It's not like I'll have an axe with me and cut your heads off" I respond

"Here you go, sir" the waiter says as he hands Hiccup his card

"Thanks" he responds "Let's go. "

We all get up and drive home. The night was filled with Hiccup telling Toothless to do his homework. Then a lot of falling from Hiccup, because the rain had done something to his leg. I had been in my room most of the time Organizing my stuff.

The whole week went like that. Waking up. Hiccup's singing. Who even know still did not get annoying, it was sweet. Going to work, or when it was my day off playing videogames with Hiccup and Toothless. At first I wasn't really good at it but I soon got the hang of it. I would also help Stormfly by training her, even though every knew why she was there. Toothless had still not had the guts to even be in the dojo when she was there. Then we would either go to eat somewhere or Hiccup would make something. On my day off I did try to make something, but I ended up setting of the fire alarm. Yeah, Hiccup's going to do the cooking. Then back to sleeping.

As for Hiccup and I, well we have been getting closer. But nothing romantic has happened. He might walk out of the shower as I'm going to the kitchen, but he doesn't mind at all. Neither do I, it's really good eye candy. I still wonder why he has no girlfriend. I have tried asking him or even Toothless, bit neither of them talk about it.

Then one day, again at the Sushi house something interesting happens. "Can I do something so she won't be annoying me" Toothless whines again

Seriously it was getting annoying, for Hiccup and I. "No, she's not going to stop until she actually sees you interested. " I say

"Uhgg"

"So anything interesting at work" I ask Hiccup

"No, nothing just the new system that the guys were working on. " he says

The guys. He never said who they were. Only that they were about one hundred people that made new gaming software, along with him. "Hey, what about that gala" Toothless says taking a sushi and stuffing it in mouth.

Hiccup turns pale white "Oh no, I totally forgot about the gala. And it's tonight. Why didn't you tell me?"

"You didn't ask. Oh and remember that you have to take a date."

"Who can I invite now, at last minute" he says Turing to me "Wait maybe..."

"No, Hiccup. I can't. I don't even have clothes to wear." I say.

A gala seriously. How can I go there. "Come on, please. It would be like you paying me back for living with me. "

Hiccup and Toothless lol both at me. "But how can I. A with all those intelligent and high class."

They both burst out laughing. "So you think that my friends are high class"

"Well you sort of are" I say

"They are just a bunch of gamer nerds. Exception being Hiccup whose a karate gamer father singer cook nerd" Toothless adds

"Come on Astrid please" Hiccup pleas

I had no choice "Fine, but what am I going to wear."

Hiccup adds "I know exactly what"

"What do you mean." I ask

"You'll see"

"Check please" Hiccup says as the waiter passes by

We wait and the waiter brings the check Hiccup pays and we go back home. Once we're in the apartment, he walks me to his room. I had never been in his room only seen the entrance of when it was open.

It was black with red, and he had a huge bed and more videogames. A tv in the corner, with laptops on each nightstand. "Okay, don't be mad at me" he says as he opens the door to his closet "I know you told me not to buy it. But you looked like you really wanted it so I sort of got it"

As I walk into his closet, which is extremely long. Shirts on the top, color coordinated and pants on the bottom, also color coordinated. Shoes on the last wall. As I inspection the closet carefully, I see a glimmery red dress at the end of the it. I walk to it taking it out. It was the dress from Macy's. The really expensive one that I had said not to buy, but he did it anyways. And this is when I turned to him. Standing there waiting for an answer.

I put the dress back on the closet rack and hugged him tightly. I cried a little of happy tears. It had been a long time since someone had done this to me. And he was the one who has demonstrated me up until this week that life isn't as bad as it seems. That this beginning have with him for now is wonderful. That he is an amazing person. A wonderful one who does so many things for people. "You okay" he says

"Thank you" I respond getting off of the hug "For everything. I'll go get ready for the gala."

Gala night. So yeah pretty much this is it. GOD BLESS YOU

And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ,

Philippians 1:9-10 NIV

7. Beginning To Party

School, homework, life, uh I have so much stuff to do. Ehh, I'll just write instead. Heheh

OIOIOIOIOIOIO

I put the dress on my bed and looked it at. It's just so beautiful. I mean who would buy this for a girl, they barely even know unless... No way. I mean that would explain everything, but what if he's generally this nice. I could wind up in the streets. But could it be, could it be that he loves me.

Getting into the shower I continued my thoughts. But love is a very strong word. You could generally like a person and be their friend, and just not want to see them sufer as he said. It's just to complicated to even think that. I close the water, and put on my robe and exit the shower.

Because you know, people can normally buy you an extremely expensive dress and hide it in their closet. Right. Drying my hair and putting on my make-up, makes this seem like forever.

Rewind what has happened between us for like the last week. He's been with me, but was he flirting. Coming to think of it maybe he was. He opened the doors for me, he held out chairs, he even helped me up when I tripped yesterday. Was he flirting or just being a gentleman. I finally put on my dress and shoes.

I walk back to the bathroom and looked into the mirror, put on some earings and walk out. I take my purse and open the door.

In the wall in front of me was Hiccup, with his metal leg leaning against the wall. He was looking down at his fingers, quite bored. He face immediately changed anf he lifted his head to see me. He didn't say a word, nor did I. It reminded me of about a week ago, under the umbrella in the rain. We stayed like that longer than usual, but what wondered me most was that Toothless hadn't butted in. "Hey, you guys are going to be late" there he was.

Toothless walked in between us, and gestured to the door. "Come on, you guys don't want to be late" he said

Hiccup cleared his throat "Yeah, uh, let's go"

"Yeah, okay" I responded

We walked to the door, while Hiccup gave Toothless a speech "No inviting friends over, no videogames past 10. Which is in about half an hour. Nothing illegal, nothing. And go to sleep before I get here, got it."

"Yeah, yeah. Bye" he said shutting the door in our face.

"Such a nice son you have" I joked

"Yeah" he chuckled

We walked to the elevator and took it down, and I "Hiccup..I would just like to thank you.. For everything. I know I've told you this multiple times before, but I would just like to thank you for giving a new hope to person as messed up as I am"

He then turned to me and said "For you Astrid, anything. You aren't a bad person you know, you just don't know who you are"

"And you do?"

"No, of course not. But I do see something in you that you don't even see. And it's that even that girl that threw me into dirty sewage water can be a softy"

Soft. If anybody else would have told me that, they would be in the hospital. But I didn't do that to him, because I... "Hiccup, why did you buy me this dress?" I asked slowly

"Why? You don't like it."

"No, of course not. I love it. It's just that you don't buy an expensive dress to a complete stranger you had meet earlier that day."

"It has just occurred to me that you might have needed it someday. And even though, I didn't buy that day. I bought about three days ago, when I went to the store with Tuff to see his sister. I saw the dress and saw how much you had liked it and I bought it" he says as the elevator opened and we walked out

"Goodnight, Mr. Haddock. Miss" said Charles as he opened the door

"Goodnight Charles" Hiccup responded

"But that still doesn't make any sense though" I said as we walked put to the parking lot, I started to walk to the car when he stopped me by getting my hand "What?"

"We're not going in my car" he said, letting go of my hand

"What are we going in then. Are we walking because I can't walk in these heels" I said

"No, we're going in that" he said pointing to the limo parked at the end of the parking lot

"In a limo!?"

"Yeah, you don't expect to go to a gala in my car. Did you?"

"Well, I just thought..."

"It's okay, come on let's go" he said walking in front of me

For some reason I just stood there and watched him walk "Are you coming or not" he joked as he turned around

"Yeah, yeah" I said catching up.

We walked to the black limo, and he opened the door. He let me in and walked to other side. "Where to sir" I heard a voice say, and it startled me

"George could you lower your screen you sort of scared Astrid" Hiccup requested

I heard a buzzing sound and a man in a cap appeared "Hello, Miss Astrid I will be helping you two tonight. " he greeted "So where are we going"

"The Bellagio, on third" Hiccup said

"Okay. Just enjoy the ride" he said putting the screen back up.

The car started and I put the window down. "Is it your first time in a limo" he asked

"Yeah" I responded, while looking up

"You wanna try that don't you" he signaled to the hood. That I was for some reason looking at.

I giggled "Yeah"

"Here" he clicked on a bottom at the edge of his seat and the hood retreated, seeing the night sky "Go ahead"

I stood up and looked out, the night life of Berkshire. The lights of the nearby shops were on. People walking down the street. As I looked out, I felt something touch my elbow. I turned around to see Hiccup, who was looking at me. "You startled me" I said shoving him.

"What you seemed to be having fun, I wanted to join" he joked

"Yeah, yeah. You know it's beautiful tonight."

"But you know what .it better" he asked

"What"

Part of me for some reason, wished for something. But the other side didn't know what to expect. "Scream"

"Scream?"

"Yeah, scream"

"Okay, then AHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH"

I finished my scream, to realize Hiccup had also done it. I looked at him and he did at me. We both laughed in a matter of seconds, and we ducked our heads in. "That was fun" I chuckled

"Yeah"

"We are about to enter" said George.

We drove another few second and The car stopped. A door opened and closed. My door was opened, and George held out his hand. I walked out along with Hiccup. We walked down and their were about three cameras taking pictures. One of them said "Mr. Haddock how does it feel to be one the richest men of your age."

Hiccup then responded some wierd complicated sentance that I didn't fully understand. "Thank you Mr. Haddock"

" " called other voices. More questions were given to him, more about software and money wise. We finally pass all the questions to enter a huge ballroom. The ceiling had paintings of angles with a gold border. The floor was marble, with a clean nude color. There was a stage at the front, with people around to as if they were getting ready to start. "Hiccup?" I ask

"Yes, Astrid"

"Do you own the company?" I tried to sound extremely confused. Wouldn't want him to think of something else

"Yes, didn't I already tell you that"

"Not that I remember of you only told me you invent videogame software"

"Well, yeah I do. I help ny employees develop the software, being one of the only CEOs that do that"

Multiple people approach us asking Hiccup more questions about the company, I try to listen but it's pretty complicated stuff. I didn't actually care much until "Henry" we hear a woman say "Hiccup"

I see a woman black hair, blue green eyes, in a short dark blue dress and black heels. "Great, just don't pay attention to anything that she says okay" he whispers to me

"Hiccup" she reaches us and looks at him totally ignoring me "How are you, love"

"Good, Heather. I would like you to meet my date Astrid." He said wrpping his arm around me

Date, this was a date. So did he... "Well love" she continued ignoring me "Do you remember about a month ago, at our last meeting and we..."

She stopped as we heard someone speak over the microphone "Today, we are here to celebrate the new contract our CEO Henry Haddock has done with our animation company Colors of Madeline. And to now welcoming Henry Haddock CEO of Dragon Games."

A man comes up to us and hands Hiccup a microphone "I'll be right back" he whispers as he walks to the stage leaving me with Heather.

I see him walk up to the stage as he starts his speech, I try to pay attention until. "Hey you, girl with my man." I hear Heather say

I turn around "Excuse me"

"Well, don't think you'll be with him for long. We've had such a history, it goes back to the company's beginning."

Keeping in mind of what Hiccup told me of not paying attention to what she says I continued "Really"

"Yeah, because I forgave for all that he did to me and I'm ready to start over. No Elsa, Anna, Merida, or Jack will stand in our way and neither you. I know he only brought you to make me jealous so you can stop the act."

"So you think that you can take my man back" I say as I stomp the floor

"He's mine, so don't even think about it"

"Oh really, we'll I don't remember him saying that to me while he led me to his apartment." I was totally saying the truth because he didn't

"You touched my man m, oh you girl are going to get it" she tried to punch me, but I grabbed her hand

People started to stare, so she let go of her fist and I did too. "I will deal with you later because there is no way you can steal my man. You'll see"

I see Hiccup ending his speech and is shaking his hand with the another man. He walks down stage and music starts. Once he close enough I say "Well you know what, Hic-Henry and I already have plans tonight" I grab his hand "And everyday he reminds me that I am better than any other girl. Let's go babe"

I grab his hand and start walking away faster each time "What was all that" he says as we reach outside, I w as slightly sprinkling

"Okay, before I say anything were you guts going to get back together or something"

"No, of course not. We went on one date and I never called her back. She wanted me to send Toothless to a boarding school and to marry her. She's crazy"

"Well, I did you a favor then" I say as we keep walking "You should have seen her face as she started to yell at me, at how you guys were going to get together and about these three girls and a dude. I don't know but inside me I was laughing. so hard. I was seriously believing that you guys used to go out. I just can't see her with you, she's so...crazy"

Hiccup begins to laugh and stops at the large fountain "Come on sit down, we have time. So what did you do"

"Okay" I sat down "So you came by after and we stormed out."

"If I do recall now you called me, babe" he says between laughs

"Um, yeah. I just wanted to know in how serious relationship we were in"

We both go quite for a moment and then we burst laughing, while it rained a little more. "Well, Milady seems like we tricked her"

We both start laughing and we look at each other. I wasn't sure what was on his mind it just seems that I knew it. It began to rain harder and harder. I slightly saw his face come closer to mine, at the same moment I did the same thing. Until I closed me eyes and realised that we were kissing under the rain.

Ohohohoh. It took so many drafts to write this and get at least at point that I like. But here it is. Hey hoped you liked it. GOD BLESS YOU.

8. Beginning To Love

Hehehe. Story time. **

So this is what it's like to be loved. At this exact moment, I am kissing the guy I loved. And I don't even know it. Do I stop this kiss? No. Why? Because I do. I really do love Hiccup. With all his goofy ways, of waking me up in the mornings. The funny dinner afternoons. And the video games. Even if I had just meet him a week earlier, I just knew.

You know how they say it takes longer for a woman to fall for man, than a man fall for a women. I feel that it's true, because Hiccup took me in the night that he had meet me. But I didn't feel comfortable with him until now.

Of course, I was okay with him as friends but something more. I feel it's true. We let go of each other, and we look at each other. The rain is pouring hard from the clouds. "Astrid?" He asks

"Yes" I respond

"Did we just.."

"Kiss" I blurt out, oh I hate this about me "Yes, yes see did"

I touch the back of his hair and kiss him again. He doesn't pull back, but what I think is that his pushing more in. More and more, until. "Woah" we both say as fall into the fountain

Not that we could get anymore wet now. It's raining and we are drenched in water. What else could happen?

We both stand up and look at each other and burst out laughing. "So" he says walking to me, lifting his leg through the water.

He puts his arms around my back, while I put mine above his shoulders. "Yes" I say

He keeps looking at me with his eyes, as if he were waiting for something to happen. Still standing here in the fountain drenched in water. "So, you do like me?"

"What?" I respond

"I mean I knew you liked me since you saw me. You know handsome guy, dashing green eyes. What's not to like" he rolls his eyes

I start laughing leaning my hard against his chest. "You've got to kidding me"

"Yeah, okay. Okay. Enough laughing miss. I have a very important question?"

"And that is?" I ask

"Well, let's just say. You me drive to the nearest open restaurant and we eat."

"So like a date"

"Well, we are on a date anyways. But okay you can call it that. So"

"Of course you doofus"

He kisses me, and I enjoy it more than anything in my life. We let go of our faces and he says "I think we should get out of the fountain?"

"I think we should too" I chuckle

I start walk out, until I turn around and see that Hiccup's still standing there. "What's wrong babe" i ask

"Babe, your keeping it?"

"Yes, so what's wrong?"

"I like it, but the problem is that. Remember my little leg problem and water."

"Right" I get into the fountain and help him out. I put both of my feet out, and then Hiccup puts his foot. He takes out the fake and puts it on the ground, slips, and falls on to me. "You know you're pretty comfortable" he jokes

"Come on Hiccup, get up" I say helping him stand.

"There we go, now we have to get to the limo" I comment

"Just call him." He says lifting his phone

"But wouldn't it be wet, and broken"

"No, I have a special phone that prevents it from doing that"

"So you have a case"

"Yeah, pretty much" he puts his phone against his ear "Hey George"

"You okay"

"Oh, well just come get us near the fountain, and take us to Gob's well take it from their"

"Okay thanks"

He ends the call and looks at me "He's on his way"

"Good, so what does Mr. Haddock have planned tonight other than a dinner."

"Well, I just think that we would make that up as the night went on"

"So you have no plan"

"Not even a clue" he says lowering his head. I laugh a little, lifting his chin up.

We saw the limo approach us and stop. Hiccup opened the door and let me in. I stepped in and sat down, he did the same. He shut the door and the car drove on. "Just to Gob's, George."

"Yes, Mr. Haddock" he responded

For some reason hsi voice sounded different. I thought of it for a moment until I felt something hot touch me. I turn around and see Hiccup handing em a towel. "Your soaking wet, you need to dry up" he says.

"True" I get the towel and dry my face. This towel was so soft, just like Hiccup's blankets.

I turn back to Hiccup who was drying himself. "You know Hiccup, I'm really enjoying this night."

"Really" he wraps his arms around me. I turn to him and see his face, he still a little wet but he's still the same. He turns to me directly, and kisses me. I close my eyes to perceive better, until I feel hit.

I open my eyes to feel myself fly to the side of the car falling on floor of the limo. Glass is everywhere, and my head hurts. I try to get up, but I feel confused. Things start to go hazy. Then I feel something on me. I try to clear my vision a little, to see Hiccup. "Astrid" I hear him, but in whisper.

His face has blood running down his forehead. "Astrid can you hear me" he pleads.

Though I only hear his voice in whisper, I see his emotion that he's actually screaming. My eyelids seem to be closing on me. No, I...

"Astrid, don't close your eyes... Come back...Astrid"

. No this will not become into a coma story, such as If I Stay. You know it's weird for me to update so soon. But eh, I had an Idea and I took it. So you like my twist.

Accepting Prompts and questions. Hehe

Oh, and if you are a really big fan of this story. After it's finish I will start a prequel/Hiccup's POV of this story. Involving his dad problems, meeting Toothless, dating problems, and Begin Again from his side. It will be called 'Haven't Met You Yet'. Inspired by 'Haven't Met You Yet' by Michael Buble, since thus story is inspired by 'Begin Again' by Taylor Swift.

GOD BLESS YOU.

Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.

9. Beginning With Fewer Ribs

Oh yeah, about the cliffhanger.

Something is on me. Not anymore. Who's picking me up?

Pain, on my side. " 25, female, 5 fractured ribs. Three left two right, concussion, needs transfusion"

"Male, 25, mild traumatic brain injury"

"Emergency Room #7"

"How?"

"Car Accident"

"Any deaths"

"Driver"

Beep. Beep. Beep.

What is that sound? Come on, open eyes, open. My eyelids seem to twitch a little, come on some more. They lift a little more. Light peeks through, it's so bright. With one final try, my eyes flutter open.

My head hurts. Too much, for my self to control. I don't feel must of my chest. I wonder why? My wrist has a tube and red liquid is coming in. My finger has a clip and my nose has been tubed up. I also have some wierd things in my lower area. I look foward and see flowers. Flowers of all kinds: roses, hibiscus, lilies. How did all these get here?

Beep. Beep. Beep.

I turn to see what's doing that. It was a heart machine, it was monitoring my heart beat. Why am I in the hospital?

I hear a movement in the other end of the room. I see a man in a wheel chair, arranging some flowers into a vase. Who is that? "Hello?" I groggy ask.

I startled the man, making him drop some of the flowers. "Astrid," he says turning the chair to me.

It was Hiccup, he was in a wheel chair. He looked the same other than some stitches on his forehead and his missing prosthetic. "Astrid, how do you feel?" He asked.

"I have this headache, it hurts so much. And I can't really feel my side." I say touching my forehead, while trying to sit up. I see Hiccup put his hand on my side

" Don't. Let me call the doctor," he presses a button on the side of the bed. "They should be here any minute."

"Hiccup, what happened and why are you in a wheel chair? I mean where is your prosthetic? And these flowers..."

"We were in a car accident, it hit your side of the car. You flew to the other side and hit yourself against the window. Then you passed out."

"How long have I been out?"

"About a day, one of the worst of my life." He says as he looks down

"Babe, I'm right here now." I say as he takes my hand

He looks back up and says "As for the flowers, I didn't know which ones you liked so I ordered all the ones from the store."

"You shouldn't have. But who crashed us?"

"Drunk driver," he responded.

"Are you pressing charges?"

"I would but it's just that George is dead."

"George, he was drunk?"

"Yeah."

We hear the door open and in comes one of the doctors. "Mrs. Haddock, how do you feel?"

"What?"

Hiccup then nudges my arm and winks. I wonder why he put his name as mine. "Do you remember who you are Mrs. Haddock?"

"Yes, of course. I was just a little confused for a moment. That's all."

"So you feel alright?"

"Yes, I do."

"Alright then the doctors will do a few more test later today, and we will have you in observation today."

"If I'm okay will I get to go home." I ask

"Due to the crash and your diagnostic, it might be a couple of days."

"Thanks Dr. Chives," Hiccup said as the doctor walked out of the door.

I then turn to Hiccup, "What was all that about?"

"I had to put the you were my wife so they would let me in, along with Toothless," he says.

We see the door open once more and in comes Toothless on the phone. "Yeah, I got it thanks."

He hangs up and looks at us. "Got it," he says lifting up a card. He hands it to me. "You are now Astrid Haddock, to all the world."

I look at it and it's a picture of last year for my ID. "And you got this from..."

"Contacts," he says picking up the flowers Hiccup had dropped "What's with the flowers?"

"But how, why?"

"Well, after I woke up I remember somebody didn't want to be recognized. So Toothless called some of his old buddies, and we got everything together. They just gave him your ID." Hiccup answered.

"So I'm your _wife..."_

"Uhh," Hiccup started to speak.

"According to the law you are, for now." Toothless states "We would've made you step brothers but no one would have believed that. So congrats you're married."

"Okay..." I speak, I feel some increasing pain from my side. I groan "Hiccup, get the doctor" I say between deep breaths.

Hiccup presses the button on the side. "It's okay." He says as he gets my hand again "You'll be alright"

"Ahhh, uhhh" I say, grabbing my side "Where is the doctor?"

The door opens and the doctor enters. "What is it?" He asks

"My side" I say between breaths.

"Okay try not to breath in so deeply" he says coming closer

I try that, it doesn't hurt as much. "Miss, I'm afraid there is not much I can do. That's the problem with fractured ribs. we are going to prescribe you pain killers, I'll go tell someone."

The doctor left, "Hiccup what did happen to me?"

Hiccup looked uncertain to me then responded "You broke five ribs, two of which could puncture your organs. So you had surgery a couple of hours ago. Buy you still have the other broken rib. You also had a mild concussion."

I don't have two ribs. What? "What about you?" I ask

"I got a concussion, and my prosthetic broke."

I look at him from the angle I can see and see something on his arm. "What's about that?" I ask "The thing. On your arm."

"Hu" he says and looks "Oh, this thing. Yeah, you needed a transfusion. Seems that you have ABO negative, one of the rarest kinds. Just a matter a fact, I have the same kind. So, yeah."

He did what? So technically he sort of saved my life. He saved my life! "Babe" I say "I could kiss you right now. But as you can see I'm not in that condition to do so."

He chuckle a little, and gets my hand. "Until your ready" he says kissing my hand "I'll be waiting."

"You guys know you cam still get married in the little chapel down the hall." Toothless comments

"He knows?" I ask

"It's not like you have to figure it out. And he told me when he woke up."

"Oh"

We see a nurse come in. "Mrs. Haddock here are your pills and some water. They may cause you sleepiness" she says as she leaves a bottle of pain killers and a cup of water.

She exits out the door, and I look at the bottle. "How does she think I'm going to reach that? Seriously." I say

"I'll get it." Toothless walks up to the table where the things were placed and passes them to me.

"Thank you" I respond, taking the pill and drinking some water.

The rest of the day was pretty bizarre, mostly because I don't remember half of it. And the several days after that. Those pills really really really worked, because I was either sleeping or not feeling anything. It's been three days and I finally think I'm being let out. The hospital's nice, Hiccup has been with me most of the time and Toothless would be there when he was out of school. The flowers in the room hadn't wired a bit. It was a beautiful sight to see, everytime my eyes fluttered open. Hiccup got his prosthetic back yesterday, so he's out of the wheel chair. If I recall he was telling me how useless he felt in the chair. Now that I'm going I'm not allowed to be out much, stuck in a wheel chair for about a week. Something about my body not standing the pressure, I don't know. "Ready to go' Hiccup tells me as he helps me into the wheel chair

"I've been ready for the past three days" I sat as I sit down.

He chuckled and knells in front of my chair "Well, Milady your carriage to your castle I waiting outside"

"Hiccup" I say between slight giggle

I see him smirk a little and says "Come here you"

He kisses me, and it felt like we hadn't since forever. "You've been holding back from em so long, you wouldn't think you would stay away that easily did you." He says

He stood up and went to the back of chair "Let's go" he says pushing it

He signs the release papers and we go to his car. He helps me to the front seat and he goes to the driver seat. We drive to his apartment, with a little funny talk in between and he helps me out again. As we enter, Charles says "Miss glad to see you better. Mr. Haddock mentioned about the accident."

"Thank you, Charles" I respond as we go to the elevator "Glad to be back"

Hiccup pushes the wheel chair in and we go up. We exit and he opens the door to the apartment. In the apartment he takes me to his room. "Hiccup , but my room is over..."

"I know" he says pushing one of the pillows upward "But your going to need medical attention if anything happens. And it just so happens that this room still has the hospital things in it from my accidents."

"_Accidents"_

"Yeah, I don't know if I've told you but after I adopted Toothless. People still sort of water to kill him, and mostly me, so we had multiple accidents. Making me have this room equipped with medical needs."

"Okay..."

"So let me help you in" he says helping me up and into his bed

He looks at me and kisses me "Would you like anything else, Milady"

"I'm..." Before I could say anything my stomach started to grumble

Hiccup laughs a little "I'll go make some sandwiches. Toothless going to be asking for some too. So I'll be back in a few minutes."

He exits the room, leaving me thinking about the accidents. If so many people tried to kill him and Toothless or at least harm them, how was it that they trusted me?

On the other hand, Hiccup is just the sweetest boyfriend ever. He is my boyfriend right? I mean who would do all these things for a person, right. And I really truly do love him. I love Hiccup.

She woke up. See I wasn't going to kill her. Why would I do something g like that? In the law they are "married", don't ask how it works because I haven't got a clue. This chapter took three days to write, it was so complicated. I'll be trying to update this story every week. So that's pretty much it. GOD BLESS YOU.

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faithâ€”and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of Godâ€” not by works, so that no one can boast.

10. Beginning With The Past

This us way overdue, sorry.

09182473914028483

I'm running to my house, how could he just do that to me? I suddenly stop at the sight of car. Great, now I'm going to die. I run to the other side of the road.

I reach the front door of my house and see it was forced open. "Mom?" I quietly ask

"Where is she?" I hear a gruff voice say from the room down the hall. It seemed vaguely familiar, but I couldn't instantly recognize.

"I...I don't know" I heard my mother say between sobs, and gasps for air.

"I've given everything to you guys and what do you give me. My daughter is if kissing some no good sons of..."

It was my father. He had been this maniac before, mostly after a bad day of work and a few bottles. I quickly walk to the kitchen and grab the pistol in the drawer. I place three bullets and empty space between each."She's not here, Damian. Just please stop."

"WOMAN, you know my name is not Damain. You will address me by my work name."

"I'm sorry, Drr...drago"

"Good" he says as I reach toward the bedroom door. I wipe the tears from that day and have the pistol at my side. Being a 17 year old with a pistol is not a very good combination. "Dad, put her down" I said as I entered the room and pointed the gun at him

"Look who finally thought of joining the party. Hehe, if it isn't the most wonderful daughter anyone could ask for."

I saw the knife in his hand, with blood dripping from one end. My mother one the floor with her hand bleeding out. "Astrid get out of here" my mother pleaded.

I ignored her demands, "Put the knife down" I say

_"What..., what do you have to say in all this. You're never here." He says as he walks toward me with the knife. My mother tries to get his feet, but kicks her face. _

I learned to not fear what he always did. Together, my mother and I, had learned to live with this. But this was enough, this had to end today. "But you know something, since you think you're so brave. Shot. "

The pistol shook in my hand. "Don't think I won't 'cause I will"

"Shot then. SHOTTTT"

_I shot, as my eyes quickly shut. I heard a maniac laugh. "I knew you couldn't do it" he hollered._

He quickly grabbed the pistol, but I fought for it. "Well you're a feisty one aren't you"

"Who knows you're never here" we fight to the gun, keeping the trigger away from my face as pulls as I do to, but in one final moment the trigger was pulled. "Asssstridd"

0o0o0o0o0

"MOM"

My eyes shot open to a dark room, I seemed to be under some covers. I turn around to see a young man standing in front of me who is presumably Hiccup. "Astrid what's wrong" he asks as he gets my hand.

"I...I...don't know"

"You were tumbling and screaming something about a dragon. Which is wierd, well I think it was dragon or something similar to it."

"Yeah" _Drago _"Must've been a nightmare. It must've"

I turn around and see the clock 8:30. It was early. "How long have I been asleep."

"About ten hours. After we got back from the hospital, I left to make a sandwich and you feel asleep. You hungry."

"Actually that sandwich does sound pretty good right now"

"Yeah, anything to make you feel better. I'll bring it in a moment" he says as he starts walking out.

"Wait, can we eat in the kitchen?"

He slowly stops at the door and looks back "Um, sure. Let me just get the wheel chair."

He took out the wheelchair, later helping me in. He rolled me out of the room, into the kitchen. The apartment seemed quite, a bit too quite. "Hey babe, where's uh Toothless"

"He's um, he's at Barf &Belch's birthday party. Their Ruff and Tuff's adoptive twin brothers. They go to school with Toothless."

"Hu, okay." I say as he sits me in front of the table

"So ham or turkey."

"Ham."

I hear the sizzle of the pan as the bread touch the surface.

In my mind, I try to remind me of everything. But something seems to stick out, I kept on thinking about the _accidents. _"Hiccup, could I ask you about something"

"Um, sure." He says with a chuckle "And no I did not work with Dean as many people think"

"No, of course not Hiccup. But I love his movies. What I mean was about the _accidents. _I remember you mentioning them before I went to sleep."

His eyes open wide, and turn to me. "What do you mean about the accidents?" He asks silently

"If you don't want to tell, you don't have to. It's okay." I say as he places the sandwich on the plate.

"No, of course I want to tell you. But it's just been something, that Toothless and I have kept a secret for a while."

"If it's a secret why did you mention it to me."

"Because it's the reason why I started helping you in the first place. And it would stop you from wondering about my room." Hr says as he hands me the sandwich and sits on the other end of the table.

It was a square table with four seats. He was sitting on one side, while I was on the other. I take a bite out of the sandwich and say "It's good"

"Thanks, now for your question. I should probably go get somethings." He says as he gets up

I finish eating the sandwich and sit next to him in the living room. In his hand were several binders, with papers slipping out. "You see" he says "After I adopted Toothless, I didn't know how much trouble he _was _in or how much he had _gone _through."

He takes out a binder with a newspaper on it. It read _Car Accident on Breakneck Ave. _On it was a picture of a black mustang, or what was left of it. Remembering as to how he met Toothless, "You were in the car."

"No, Toothless was in the car. I was _that." _He says as he points to the body underneath the car "And for that he would've gone to jail. But before he had hit me, I had looked into his eyes and he didn't seem to have wanted to do it. He looked the same way I looked at him. With the fear of what was going to happen. He's never meant any of _this._"

He opens the binder, turning the pages. _Robbery, Shooting, Hacking, _and other titles read the articles. "He had never been arrested, he had never been seen, and he had presumably never taken anything for himself"

"But the robberies?"

"Those things were all given to Toothless' boss. Who they called the Red Death."

He takes out another binder, with the cover saying _Child Trafficker Caught._ "You see Toothless had been in child trafficking, since he was a little kid. He worked for a man who used children as robbers."

"But what does that have to do with the your accident?"

"That's what I'm getting to"

He takes another binder out, with _Medical Records-Henry Haddock_

He flipped the binder, explaining all the accidents before Toothless. "And this was the life changing."

The record read for emergency. "This was when we broke into Red Death lair. Toothless had been taken by force one afternoon, after my match. Which was the first one I had ever got a belt in. I had given him a new phone that night, for anything he would want. I had tracked after I didn't find him after the match. After a fire started in the abandoned warehouse, I couldn't breath and passed out. Toothless was the one who helped me out."

"So that what the rooms was for"

"The recovery from the fire took a time to recover, and since then we've had some of Toothless' old enemies gang up on us. One almost making Toothless believe that I killed myself."

"Oh, but how does that lead to me"

"That leads to you because you seem to be escaping as much as I was escaping my problems with the help of Toothless. And I promised myself, I would return the favor in any way possible. And look now, I even feel in love. With the most beautiful girl, that I could ever look for. "

He walks toward me and grabs my hand "And I want you to know that whatever is haunting you, even if it's the dragon in your dreams. That I will be here to help you. And protect you"

He kisses me one more time, as we hear the door open. As we end kissing we hear a small chuckle. Hiccup turns around to see Toothless, wearing a black sweater in front of the door. "You guys know I can just leave right. But this is actually pretty funny to watch."

"In how in anyway is this funnnnny" I hear Hiccup trouble to say as he feel.

"In that way" I start laughing with Toothless, as Hiccup gets up.

"And you knew that how?"

"The floor was to slippery when I came in. And your foot was correctly."

"Ha, great."

"Wait, what's on the table? Are those." Toothless walks to the table, seeing the papers on the floor "She knows?" He said quite irritated

"Yes, but I'll keep it a secret. Don't worry." I reassure him

"Are you sure?" He says as he walks to me

"Yes"

"Because this could get you killed"

"Don't worry I promise"

"Fine" he angrily pulls the backpack that had fallen off his shoulder.

We hear the awkward silence after my little promise speech with Toothless. He doesn't seem to be pleased with me knowing for some reason. Maybe it's because he doesn't know me as well, either. Or maybe "Why don't we uhhh" Hiccup says as he clears hsi throat "Play Rise of Berk. You like that Toothless, don't you"

"Um, maybe not right now. I'm going to go to bed, the party was pretty tiring. I've got homework to do too."

"Okay, good. Yeah, I should gets some rest too." Hiccup says as he sees Toothless walk to his room.

I don't say anything, instead he whispers "I'll talk to him"

I sit there waiting for him to come out. "Just leave me alone" I hear an angry growl come front the room, as Hiccup is pushed out.

"You want to watch a movie." He asks

I nod as he walks to the TV and places a movie into the Bluray. I get out of the seat and Hiccup helps me on the couch. I see the previews as he quickly puts all the papers away. He sits next to me, with one arm around and I lay my head on his shulder.

I couldn't actually concentrate on the movie. Wondering what Toothless was thinking about me.

So yeah, we got a bit much backstory/drama. I think. Heheh, just a shout out to httyd_2_Astrid. From Instagram. Gurrllll. Yeah. That's all. GOD BLESS YOU.

11. Beginning With The Truth

Yaya, update.

The past week hasn't been all of what I'd would've expected. Aside from the broken ribs problem, my week was going to be okay. Hiccup was going to take care of me, and aside from that I would've played videogames with Toothless. But that didn't happen.

Ever since I know about most Toothless' past, he's been shutting out on both of us. Both of us being Hiccup and I.

The first day went a little like this. Toothless walked into the apartment, but didn't sat his things down. He turns to me, as to what I could say was death glare, while I was sitting on the couch playing Rise of Berk. He looks away rapidly and passes the kitchen, Hiccup asks "So how was school today"

He turns at Hiccup, in which I could see Hiccup's face become annoyed and mad. "Just leave me alone" he says angrily and walks to his room. Shutting the door with great force, I still wonder how it's still up.

And it's been like that the last week. It's Friday afternoon and he's been out all day. I question Hiccup about it only getting the answer that he'll be back.

"Hiccup are you sure, what if he got kidnapped. What if he got killed. What if he got..."

"Astrid, he's my son. I know him, he's fine."

We hear the door open, "Talking about the king of Rome" Hiccup whispers "So, Toothless where have you been"

Expecting to get the same answer of being left alone, he answers "In the dojo"

"But it's closed this late"

"But I was still in there."

"But the lo...never mind" he says as he gets off the couch, where we were both sitting. Playing Dragon School.

"So you want something to eat?"

"No, actually I just wanted to ask her some questions" Toothless says as he walks past Hiccup and sits next to me.

Hiccup eyebrow raises and looks at me. "And as to what I've known he hasn't asked anything about your past. And it only seems fair for you to tell me some of yours" he says taking putting his backpack beside the couch.

And here comes what I've been fearing of talking of. All the dreams I've been having the past week. "Uh, Toothless. I don't..."

"Hiccup, why don't you just stop it."

Did he just talk back? "I will not be talked like that mister"

"How can you not? "

"Toothless." He said stopping hsi one good foot

"Just SHUT UP. Hiccup do you know who she is. What she's done. She could be a murderer for all you know."

"Timothy, go to your..."

It's now or never. "Drago"

The room goes silent. "What?" Hiccup asks

"Drago, my fathers name was Drago. Well Damain, but he prefered to be called Drago."

"Wait Drago?" Toothless asks

"Yes"

Toothless immediately faints at the sound of my voice. "Toothless" Hiccup says as he turns him on the floor.

"Toothless" he says as he shakes him "Toothless can you hear me."

His eyes pop open again. "Toothless, what. Who is Drago?" Hiccup says as he leads Toothless back to the couch .

"Drago Bludvist is a mad man." He says

"Wait, you know my dad?" I ask

"Of course I do. I mean anyone in my old gang knew him. Only the roughest went against him, or even saw him. They said he was a mad man, who killed for no reason, and couldn't be reasoned with. But why are you running away from him. It's not like he can reach . Can he?"

"Well, he sort of can because he's police officer right." Hiccup asks as he sits down in the chair in front

"He's a police officer. No, he's not." Toothless responds "He's, he's a killer. "

"No, he's an officer. He's been an officer since I was a little girl. He even had a car. " I say

"Okay, if you say he's the officer then. Come on, I think I can figure this out." Toothless stands up and gets his backpack, walking to his room.

Hiccup turns to me, then I say "Help me"

"Okay, wait. Let me just.." Hiccup tries to get the wheel chair, but can't find it. Which he ended up picking me bride-style.

"Woah, okay. Okay" I say as he picks me up.

We walk to Toothless' room, who I had not gone into. The inside of his room was mostly black, with green. Seemed a lot like Hiccup, but with fewer lights and about five computers. His bed was gray with red stripes, which Hiccup set me down on. "Owwww" I say as he sets me down.

"There, better" he says as he puts pillows in place. Making it comfortable for me. He gets a rolling chair in front of the computer screens. Toothless already sitting on this huge black chair, having the mouse in his hand.

The computer screens were organized three the up most shelf, two under that, and three at the bottom.

"Now Drago Bludvist" he murmurs as he types. We hear several clicks and a "Yes"

He turns around to both of us and touches the screen, making the page bigger. "Subject:Drago Bludvist. One of FBI's most wanted,; for murder, drug trafficking, child trafficking, and woah. Okay, that's a pretty long lists. Which I will not read for time purposes."

"But that still doesn't make sense, why would my dad tell us he's a police officer."

He goes back to the computer typing "Let me see.. What was his name.."

"Damain Hofferson"

"Damain Hofferson, Damain Hofferson. Aha. He..."

"Wait a minute, Toothless where are you getting this information."

"Umm, not a federal agency. Which I broken in since I was little. Ha ha of course not. Anyways, Damain Hofferson is well no one."

"What?" I ask

"He is no one, there is no record of a Damain Hofferson. At all. Maybe under another agency, but it's pretty hard to crack into that one. But I have to.." Toothless started to sound really stressed, putting his hand through his hair. He starts to rapidly click on icons and typing.

Hiccup stands up, walling toward Toothless, turning his chair. "Hey" Toothless complains

"Toothless, is their something about that man that you'd like to tell me. I mean it's not normal for a boy to faint at his name."

"I know him. I've known him ever since I was little. Since I was kidnapped. In reality he's...he kidnapped me."

"He did what?" We screamed

"Wait, Hiccup you don't know" I ask

"No, he's never told me how he got to the Red Death. He's decided to keep that to himself. But Toothless, are you willing to talk now?"

"Well, I mean it is time. And this might help the problem as to Astrid, which I still don't know." He says as he stands up, walking to the bed and sitting next to me "I was five years old, and my mom had just put me in bed. 'Goodnight' she said. I had been asleep for about fifteen minutes and I heard a noise. I heard a gruff voice saying 'Where's the money? Where's the money?'."

His eyes had started to tear a little. "Then I heard my father say 'We thought it would have to be until next week'. Then a 'Well, where is it now'. My mother said 'Can we have one more week'. I had gotten out of my bed and was at the creak between the door and the wall. I saw three men in front on my parents, two pointing guns at them. 'Drago can we please have more time'. 'Drago Bludvists gives time to no one' I heard one say 'Kill'. Two shots were heard and my parents collapsed on the ground."

He started to cry, in which I hugged him. "I ran from the creak and hid under the bed. Hearing 'Search the house. Find the child, he must be worth somethin'. Taking anything valuable too. And get rid of them.' The door opened to my room, which they walked toward my bed. One tossed the sheet 'He's not here'. The other looked under the bed, in which he saw me. 'Found him'. They lifted the bed, grabbing me. 'Let me go' I screamed and kicked 'Let me go'. But no, they pulled harder. They carried me out of my room, making me pass by my parents. Whose lifeless bodies were lying on the ground bleeding out. 'Mommm, Daddddd."

He cried harder, in which Hiccup got off his chair and sat on his other side. "And after that, I don't remember anything. Until ending up with the Red Death."

His crying increased, in which I looked at him. I turned up to Hiccup, whose eyes were as worried as mine. He had lost his mother as a child to, but this was different. He had seen his parents killed in front of him. When he was a child. He had gone through what I had gone through. But worse. His parents had died, and it was all my father's fault. My father's been killing since I was a child. I've been living a lie. My whole life has been a lie.

Sooooo, backstory. Sorry for the back story chapters, but they are necessary, very necessary. Now I have most of it planned out about five to ten more chapters. Yeah, then Haven't Met You Yet. Yaya. Also a shout out from my last chapter, which she finally got her account Noeltheauthor11293. GOD BLESS YOU

12. Beginning To Be Clean

Heyyyy...some story below might be a little bit more on to T then K+, you have been warned. For blood and other other stuff.

Toothless quickly looked up and wiped his tears. We both let go of him as he responded "Well, that's in the past." He said between whimpers "But now I have Hiccup, I'm okay. But Astrid please tell me, it's been bothering me all week."

I look at him and back at Hiccup, then at him again. While trying to keep myself from also tearing up, I just man up. This time for sure. "I...

High school was probably the worst time of my life. Senior year was here and it was all about who was going to take who to prom, yadayadahyadah. I closed the door to my locker and looked forward to see Eric."Hey, Astrid" he said.

I move my bangs out of my hair to see him better. Not only was he the most popular kid in my class, but I had actually spent a lot of time with him. He had been to my house a lot since he was working with my dad, he also wanted to become a police man. "What's up" I say as I start walking to my next class, we were going to the same one.

He walks next to me and says "You know we've known each other for a while right."

"Yeah..."

"So, since I'm not currently dating anyone. Would you go to prom with me, Astrid?"

He stopped me mid hall, as other students passed. I looked into his eyes, part of me said he was lying. But the other part actually was saying yes, telling myself that I wasn't just walking around the house as he fixed the police car; shirtless. So I went for it "I'd love to go with you Eric."

"So what does this have to do with the story. I really don't care about your boy problems, you got Hiccup here for all you care for" Toothless said as he patted Hiccup's shoulder.

I looked at Hiccup in which he nodded and said "Proceed"

"Okay then" I say "I..."

"Wait, wait." Toothless inturupts

"What"

"You said Eric worked with Drago"

"Yes"

"Wouldn't he also be in the business?"

I looked back in thought, "That actually explains something's."

"What?" They both ask

"That's where I'm getting to..."

_Eric and I spent a lot of time together after that, we had what you could say the 'it' couple. Not like a cared much, but it was one of the first times that people just ignored me. For all I knew nobody knew who I was. _

Prom came along and my mom had helped me pick this beautiful blue dress with green sparkles. I had some gold heels to go with it as well. "You look beautiful dear" my mother commented

"Thank you"

_We heard a knock outside, "That must be him" _

My mother walks to the door as I get my bag from my closet. "Hello, . I'm here to pick up, Astrid."

"Why hello, Eric. You clean up very nicely. You and my daughter make such a beautiful couple. "

"Mom" I say quite annoyed as I walk out

He grabs my hand as we walk to his car. "Have fun" my mom tells from teh front door "But not too much fun, if you know what I mean"

He opens the door to the BMW parked outside. "Thank you" I say as he lets me in

He closes the door and he then walks around to the other side. He sits next to me and starts the car. He starts driving and says "I hope you don't mind but I told some friends I could pick them up so we can all go together."

Furious inside, why would he tell other people to go with us. I responded "Oh, it's okay."

He makes a few turns, which made me quite dizzy to get to the house. He opens the door to the car. "I'll be right back" he says

He opens the door and I sit in the car; taking out my phone once in a while, to see the time and what not. About fifteen minutes had passed to make me see the door and see Eric kissing this other girl the house. Oh I couldn't believe it. I opened the door and walked out, "YOU STIKIN' LIAR" I scream at the house

I see him not even turning around to say anything. I then hear a giggle and "Eret, you son of...Eret"

"Did you just say Eret son of Eret?" Toothless asks, sinc she no longer had tears coming down his eyes

"Yes"

He quickly jumps off the bed and types in 'Eret son of Eret'. "One of the few times I had escaped from here when Hiccup first met me was at this dudes initiation. He was said to elimate us all, and was told to be one of Drago's biggest helpers. You mess with you're dead"

I turn to the screen along with Hiccup, and I see a clear picture of him. "That's him" I say

"Murder, kidnapping, and a lot of other stuff. Alias Eric Bauren. That must be the guy; so while you were going out with him, he was working for Drago"

"Do I continue?" I ask

They both nod

I'm running to my house, how could he just do that to me? I suddenly stop at the sight of car. Great, now I'm going to die. I run to the other side of the road.

I reach the front door of my house and see it was forced open. "Mom?" I quietly ask

"Where is she?" I hear a gruff voice say from the room down the hall. It seemed vaguely familiar, but I couldn't instantly recognize.

"I...I don't know" I heard my mother say between sobs, and gasps for air.

"I've given everything to you guys and what do you give me. My daughter is if kissing some no good sons of..."

"Why would you're mom say she didn't know if she knew? Hiccup asked

"We both knew how violent he could get so we made a pact that if he ever hurt her, or went nuts. She would never reveal where I was, even if she knew"

It was my father. He had been this maniac before, mostly after a bad day of work and a few bottles. I quickly walk to the kitchen and grab the pistol in the drawer. I place three bullets and empty space between each."She's not here, Damian. Just please stop."

"WOMAN, you know my name is not Damain. You will address me by my work name."

"I'm sorry, Drr...drago"

"Good" he says as I reach toward the bedroom door. I wipe the tears from that day and have the pistol at my side. Being a 17 year old with a pistol is not a very good combination. "Dad, put her down" I said as I entered the room and pointed the gun at him

_"_You know how to use a gun?" Toothless asked

"I had...well lets just say one of dates with Eret was at a pistol training. I still have no idea why we went there."

"Look who finally thought of joining the party. Hehe, if it isn't the most wonderful daughter, anyone could ask for."

I saw the knife in his hand, with blood dripping from one end. My mother one the floor with her hand bleeding out. "Astrid get out of here" my mother pleaded.

I ignored her demands, "Put the knife down" I say

_"What..., what do you have to say in all this. You're never here." He says as he walks toward me with the knife. My mother tries to get his feet, but kicks her face. _

I learned to not fear what he always did. Together, my mother and I, had learned to live with this. But this was enough, this had to end today. "But you know something, since you think you're so brave. Shot. "

The pistol shook in my hand. "Don't think I won't 'cause I will"

"Shot then. SHOTTTT"

I shot, as my eyes quickly shut. I heard a maniac laugh. "I knew you couldn't do it" he hollered.

He quickly grabbed the pistol, but I fought for it. "Well you're a feisty one aren't you"

"Who knows you're never here" we fight to the gun, keeping the trigger away from my face as pulls as I do to, but in one final moment the trigger was pulled.

I begin to cry my eyes out in front of them. Hiccup wraps his arms around me, adn I lean on him. "It's okay" he whispers "It's okay"

I turned to see my mother lying on the floor with the bullent next to her heart. "Looks what you've done" he laughs evily, from the corner of the room

"MOM" I say as I kneel next to her "MOM, CAN YOU HEAR ME MOM"

_My dress soaked with blood, and my father manically laughing. _

_He grabs me from my hair and says "You dare tell anyone I did this, I'll kill them__. You escape this house, I'll make sure you're also dead. You dare tell the police, the police will belive it's you. Now get rid of the body, it's staining the floor. Go AS."_

He throws me to the ground. I look at my mother's closed eyes and say "I promise I'll get out of here, even if it's the last thing I do"

My crying became louder, and Hiccup still remained next to me. Only know I felt two more arms, they must be Toothless'. And that moment, every trace of him was gone. I think I'm finally clean.

Hey, so that was the (hopefully) back story chapter. Yeah, there was a lot of Backstory in this story. Which will also help in Haven't Met You Yet. So, let's hope I'll update sooner. GOD BLESS YOU.

Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

James 4:10 NIV

13. Beginning A New Day

Continuing This Story, so ready for the climax. Hehe, it's gonna be good.

It's been about a month since I told them. Life has gone continued,

Hiccup took me yesterday to the doctor; who released me from the wheel chair. My ribs are now fine, and today's my first day back to the dojo. "Toothless!" I hear Hiccup scream "You're going to be late."

Toothless runs out with his hair out of shape, one red shoe one blue, a purple jacket, underwear, and a green shirt, with Levis. "You okay there, Toothless?" I ask

"Yeah, why?" He asks as he runs around the living room, picking up a book and stuffing it in his backpack.

"Well, people I know where their underwear inside their pants." I say from my seat in kitchen, while Hiccup chuckles.

"Ugh" he says taking off his underwear and unzipping his pants.

"NOT HERE!" Hiccup screams

"Fine" he says as he walks to gus room, while holding his pants.

"Why is he so...?" I ask

"Nervous, running around the house like a maniac?" He asks as he puts a pancake on a plate and places it on the table. It was for Toothless.

"Yes"

"Well, his big karate match is today."

"Hey you didn't tell me about this!?"

"Yeah, I did I told about three days ago, before you fell asleep."

"I probably wasn't listening, so who's he going against"

"Thunder" Toothless responds as he runs out of the hall, snatching the pancake from the plate and stuffing it in his face. He grabbed the backpack from the living to room and running out the door.

"Forgot his essay." Hiccup says as he points beside his empty plate.

The door opens, in comes Toothless who has changed nothing except his underwear. Grabbing the essay and running out. "Guess not" I say

He serves me some breakfast and we eat. Afterwards we drive to a dojo, walking in I see a little girl chopping a board. She looked about 6 years old. Behind her was a large man, who I didn't fully recall who he was. "Uncle Fish was that good?" the little girl asked

"That was amazing" Hiccup says

"Uncle Hiccup!" The girl exclaims as she runs to him and hugs him, he lets girl and she asks "Who's this lady? She's pretty."

"Why thank you!" I exclaim as get down to her level "I'm Astrid, and you are?"

"I'm Madison but they call me Meatlug" she says cheerfully

The man walks to us "I believe we haven't met" he says "I'm Fishlegs, and you must be Astrid. Hiccup has been telling me about you."

"Hi" I say "So you guys are related?"

"No" Fishlegs responds "Meatlug would you go get your backpack you're going to be late for class"

"Of course Uncle Fish" she says as she walks to the staff area.

"So" I ask

"Well, she's under my custody now. Since cousin and her husband died, she left me in charge of her when she was only two. And she considers everyone in the dojo their uncle or aunt."

"Oh" I say

I turned to the girl who seemed to have a light brownish backpack. "Well, I'm going to change." I say as I walk into the changing rooms.

I come out of the dojo to see about give people outside. I recognize Tufffnut and Ruffnut but I don't exactly know who the other man was. He looked a lot like Fishlegs in type but he seemed pretty mad in a way. Hiccup had a clipboard and was in front of them. "Guys you know Astrid right."

"Hey" I hear them say except for the guy I don't know who says "How you doin'"

"Snotlout" I hear a very irritated Hiccup say "You have a child"

Snotlout, wow what a wierd name. And I thought they couldn't get weirder. "So anyways" Hiccup continued "Tuff, Ruff you're I'm charge of setting up the placement. No explosives. I repeat no explosives."

"It's not like we were going to use any" Tuffnut says innocently as we hear a crash at the backdoor

"When Fishlegs come back from taking Meatlyg, he will make sure they don't do anything that could cause a trouble"

"Snotlout, go get the medals from the back. Along with the belts."

"Fine." Snotlout says very annoyed

"Astrid, you will be judging the competitions. So you can just help with the set up."

"As for me, I'm going to call Dagur and see if he's still for it."

_Dagur, _seriously where do they get these names. With that we all go to our task. Walking next to Ruffnut to get the mats. "So Ruff, what did Hiccup mean by telling Snotlout that he had a son" I asked

"Oh, Hookfang. Well, you didn't hear it from me but he opened his front door one day. And there was the kid in a basket with a note that said _He's yours. _Snotlout being Snotlout didn't want to care for the child. Leaving him on his front door step, expecting someone to pick him up."

"Why didn't he just like take him to an orphanage or something?" I asked

"Wel, Snotlout prefers to gloat to himself, play videogames, and drink; or work when he has to. It all went okay until Hiccup knocked on his door, along with Fishlegs. They entered the house, with Snotlout complaining about the baby. But at the end Hiccup convinced him in taking care of the boy. "

"Had Hiccup adopt Toothless by then?"

"No, I mean he must've still been a baby. Since Toothless and Hookfang are the same age."

"Oh.."

"Here's the storage room" she said opening it up. Inside were a bunch of dusty mats, cobwebs, and what seemed to be an old sandwich.

"What happened here?"

"Snotlout happened" Fishlegs said as he entered the room

"Hye you're back. How?"

"He accidently shut him self in the room with no cell phone. He was stuck in here for a whole weekend, since Toothless, Hiccup and his father had gone on a business trip to another city. Nobody noticed Snotlout was in here until Toothless was looking for his gui. And nobody cleaned it up after he was found"

"Hm, okay then let's get to work"

The next three hours were spent organizing the stock room. We had found even more food, and things I don't even dare to talk about. Hiccup did pass by every once in a while, being on the phone. He seemed to groan everytime he finished his comment. "So how do you guys set this place up for competitions?" I asked

"Normally the twins would take out the mats, and we would have a table with all the awards and thr belts."Fishlegs clarified

"Okay then."

We carried the things out to the main training area. We hears the door open with a big boom "Hey, lad you in here?"

"Gobber?" I heard Hiccup say

"Yeah, come on. I have something for you."

"Coming" Hiccup responds

"Who's Gobber?" I ask

"He's the owner of the Computer Repair across the mall. He used to take care of Hiccup when he was little. He's the one who taught him all about his video game things" Ruff clarified.

"Oh..." I hear the front door close.

We stretch mats through the floor, and put up the tables, in about 2 hours. "Has anyone seen Snotlout?" Hiccup asks as he enters the room. He was wearing some glasses, and had a tool belt around his waist.

"Nope, not since you sent him to get the medals." Tuff responded

"Which was about four hours ago..." Ruff adds.

Hiccup groans, "Astrid, Fish. Let's go look for him."

"What about us?" ask the twins

"Just don't destroy the place. it's about 2 so Toothless, Stormfly, and Hookfang, and your brothers should be here any minute now." He responded as he leaded us out.

So where are we going?" I asked

"To Silent Sven's"

"What the heck is that?"

"You'll see"

And so did I see, Silent Sven was none other then the malls little bar. And it's was mostly empty for none other than Snotlout, who had a large cup of beer in his hand. "No, TO THE RIGHT, TO THE RIGHT!?" He screamed at the TV.

"Snotlout" Hiccup said

"Oh, hey cuz." He responded as he waved

"What are you doing here?" Hiccup said as he walked to where he was sitting "I sent you to go look for the medals, and you're not supposed to be drinking. Sven, why did you...?"

He trailed off as he saw a very young man cleaning the counter "Who are you?" Hiccup asked

"I'm Gustav, I just started working here last week." He explained

"How old are you?"

"I'm, uh..i'm twenty-one."

He certainly did not look twenty- one. Be look more to be around the age of 17 through 20 year old. " Well, Gustav" he said getting Snotlout's mug "Don't give alcohol to this man, he's not supposed to drink. Let's go, Snotlout."

He got Snotlout out of the chair he was sitting in a pushed him out. As they made their way out Snitlout said "How You doin'"

"Snotlout, shut up. You're drunk and besides she's my girlfriend."

At that second Snotlout immediately stopped and looked from hum to me, back to him, back to me. "You mean our old Useless got this bae."

"Um, yes Snitlout. We are together. Right Astrid"

"Yes, we are babe." I responded as I gave him a small peck on the cheek.

"I'm done" Snotlout said walking back to the dojo "Come on 'legs."

Before Fishlegs went to trail behind Snotlout he said "I knew something was happening between you guys. Nobody just enters like that to the dojo."

"Seems like the while dojo knows now." Hiccup said as we slowly walked to the dojo, passing through the blue flowers that were falling on the floor.

"Why does it bother you?" I asked "I mean Toothless and your dad know right, since he was their after the accident right."

I had never noticed how detailed the floor was of the mall. It had dragons imprinted all over the floors and malls. They looked a lot like Hiccup's mother's drawing, a little bit too much. "It's just that you don't know how nosy they might get."

"But why would they do that?" I asked. I looked at the wall design now, seeing that two dragons going face to face appeared the most within everything else. I did see a repeating pattern of the paintings that were hung in room. But why would they be in this mall?

"Let's just say when I started to talk about Toothless. They thought I was talking about a girl and started following me." I stopped thinking about the mall, and started relaxing what Hiccup said. "So are they going to follow us around?"

"Maybe? Who knows, they are very unpredictable and nosy. Especially the twins."

"You know the twins don't seem as bad as I thought they'd be."

Hr chuckled "Well you didn't know then when they were fifteen and they could fall from the dojos' celling at any time."

We almost reached the dojo when a chubby man without an arm reached us "Hiccup, the thing went haywire. Again."

"Again?!" He said "I just...uhgg."

"Who is she?" He asked,

"She is Astrid, Astrid, Gobber; he showed me everything I know about programming and computers. "

I try to not to look at his prosthetic arm. He must've noticed that he said "Oh this, just a battle scar. Reason why I left the marine."

"Oh" I say

"So this is the famous Astrid your father wad talking about. Finally got Hiccup to do something other than take care of the Toothless." He chuckled.

We both chuckles uncomfortably. "So wanna come Astrid?" He asked

"Sure" I responded. The shop was hidden in a small part of the mall, you could almost always miss it as you were passing by. The shop was called 'The Forge-for all your tech needs'

We were in the shop for about an hour and we left soon after. "You're welcome Gobber" Hiccup said as we exited the shop

We left to small area of shops to only see Stoick entering the mall's office and wave to hs. Making me finally ask a question "Does your dad own the mall?"

"Hmm?"

"Does your dad own the mall?"

"Oh, yeah. He owns the mall, did I now tell you that." He said innocently

"Yeah, you didn't." I said as I punched his arm "Is their anything else I should know, like if you had a relative that works for the CIA or something"

"Thinking on that, my dad and Gobber did work in the Marine for several years. Anything else you'd like to know?"

"Hiccup, why are you so full of secrets?" I asked

"Because I haven't met someone new, that has become such an impact in my life in a long time. Ever since I met Toothless, my life has changed but I haven't had time to met anyone else. And the you came into my life, and opened several new doors for you to discover in me. It's my comfort to reveal to people that I'm a multi-millionaire gamer, I just works in a Dojo with my dad. Haven't I told you that I trust you, and that is why you know something's about me."

"Yeah"

".." I could notice he was about to say something but had a second thought. I could mostly assure it was about how I didn't reveal much of my past either. But he couldn't blame me, who want to date a girl that is looked by an FBI most wanted. "Let's just go back to the dojo, Toothless and Stormfly must already be there."

The walk back was ultimately silent, but it was only about for a minute. As he opened the door, I was greeted with an "Astrid!" And a big hug from Stormfly

Hiccup walked behind me, going to Toothless who had already started training with a Bo staff. "Hey, girl. How have you been?"

"Good, but I 've been worried about you. Toothless said you were in an accident with Hiccup, and that you broke your ribs."

"Yeah, but Toothless finally talks to you."

"Yeah, one day after you were in the accident he came to the school. He said he was really worried about you, because Hiccup hadn't really been his best either. And I was comforting him afterwards."

"Oh," It's not been a mystery that Toothless cares about especially since the he knows. But I didn't really know he cared that much, but it must just be because Hiccup was off too. Right? "So are you competing today?"

"Um, no not yet. I don't think I'm ready"

"oh, right I haven't been here" she mumbled "So has been training with you"

"Ruff tried but she ended talking to Snotlout, about a game. Tuff ended up passing out from hitting himself with a Bo staff, and Fish was just teaching me the vocabulary of Karate. While Hiccup and Toothless were with you."

"Oh, well at least you could root for Toothless right"

"Yeah" she cheered

We sat in the stands that had been set up beside the mats. Hiccup came up to me and said "The Berserk Dojo is coming, they should be here any minute."

As one cue in came, the group consisting of a a large scar on his, two other older men, and six kids. "Hiccup" the man said with a scary chuckle.

Hiccup stood from beside me and said "Dagur, how nice to see you again."

"You to my friend, you to ny friend."

I heard a spit from the other side of the room, and saw Toothless with an extremely and face. What is he doing here' he mouthed

"I see you came out of prison sooner than expected."

"Berserkers sit on the stands" he ordered, and hsi team followed "As I told you in the phone call, I was released for good behevior. And a mean bowl of chilly"

He continued to chuckle, and just kept on frightening me even more. "And who so lovely lady" Fagur said as he walks behind Hiccup and Reaches me

"I am..Astrid, Hiccup's _girlfriend_"

He grunted and said "Well, what a catch you got there my man. Lets start the match."

I exhaled, as Hiccup sat next to me. "I am so sorry. I didn't mean for him to."

"It's fine babe," I say as I kiss his cheek "Let's start the matches."

My angriness and been put to a better use of adrenline. Oh, how I wanted to kick that mans sorry butt. But no, you just got better the doctor said you had to lay off of karate for a while remember. Okay first the match were two little five year old boys, they were trying for their white belt. One fell down, boy accidently and the other pushed him out. Allowing him to win, the little boy cried to his mom that was in the stands nearby.

The whole entire rainbow later, was Toothless' match. He had been sitting next to Hiccup and Stormfly the whole time watching everyone pass and now it was his turn. He was wearing his white gui. A black belt with a red dragon on the side was held around his waist. He walked up to the mat, to his opponent.

I turned to the man on the other hand, he looked about as tall as Hiccup and weighed more than 250 pounds. He was also ready, I heard his knuckles crack as he silently laughed in his horse voice.

"Begin" I said.

Thunder strikes first trying to get Toothless, but he cartwheels back. I hear him murmur something to himself. I turn to Hiccup to see he is also murmuring something. Toothless suddenly does a kick, as Hiccup had finished to speak. Thunder didn't seem so pleased as he fell to the ground, trying to grab Toothless' leg; but ultimately missing. Hiccup was still murmuring something under his breath, as Toothless continued to move. After a few more seconds of sparring, Hiccup begins to murmur faster. Toothless seemed to have gotten distracted falling to the floor, he seemed to be about to give up but doesn't. Grabbing onto Thunders foot pulling him into the ground off the mat. Toothless won! "Berk Dojo" I say as I point to Toothless.

He cheers as Hiccup goes and hugs him, along with Stormfly. Thunder who didn't seem so please with his loss, grunted his way out of the dojo. The Berserks seemed to have been packing, and I turned to belt table getting Toothless'new belt to turn to Dagur in front of me. "Hey, Cupcake" he says with hsi disgusting breath, he should really wash his mouth.

"Excuse me!?" I say

"What do you look in that twig, I can please you in much better ways" he chuckles as he tries to grab my waist.

As I was about to retreat his hand, I think of better hand. Grabbing his wrist and pulling him to the ground. My foot against his face, "NO ONE MESSES WITH ME, YOU GOT IT." I scream "NO ONE"

The dojo went quite as the celebrating, now frighten faces, turn to her position. I suddenly get off of him as he runs to his group "Let's go guys, there seems to be a disgusting twat here."

Hiccup who seemed to have seen all the action walks to me. "hey are you okay? Did he try to hit on you again?" He asks as he removes the hair from my face.

"Yeah" I respond "But as you can see I got him back and I'm fine."

He chuckles "See your pretty, smart, and can hit a grown man's butt. Your amazing you know that."

"Yeah"

We were about to go into a kiss when he we hear a throat clearing. "A fourth degree black belt would like his sushi to be today, but if you want to go and do your thing that I'll just go with some friends, the twins, Hookfang and Stormfly here wouldn't mind tagging along would you. "Of course not" Stormfly says

"Food" the twins say "Yeah"

"Whatever, at least I'm not home" Hookfang continues

"Um, no Toothless let's all go. I bet you really would like to wear this now don't you" I say as I walk past Hiccup and hand him his new belt

"Heck yeah" he says as grabs it "Now, you guys go do something. I give you the night off, from taking care of all this. Well just go, alright"

"But I just..." I say

"He wants some his own he's fourteen, his bound to not want to spend time with us. And now that he seems to get a girlfriend, he might be put even more. Wait I forgot to give him.." Hiccup takes out his wallet to say "And he took out three hundred dollars wallet. Well at least he's got money"

I laugh "Your own child robbed you"

O0o0o0op0

The whole team had cleaned up eh dojo pretty quickly leaving me and Hiccup some alone time. "So what do you want to do watch a movie or something."

"That sounds like fun, let's go to the apartment."

"Well, why not just here?" He says

"Here?" I ask "How"

"Okay sit on the mat I'll be right back"

I follow his orders sitting on the amt in the middle of the training area, I stare at the white wall in front of me. The lights went out, and I turn to see Hiccup with a blanket and two pillows. "Why would you have pillows here?" I ask

"After training Toothless falls asleep on anything, so I just ended up bringing pillows and blankets here" he says as he throws a blanket at my face

"Hey" I say as I throw it back

"Just tske care of them let me get the movie ready" he says as he lays the things on the mat.

He walks behind me to a counter on the other side of the room. He takes out a little box, and a bigger cardboard box. "They're a bunch of movies, I've got Grease, Mamma Mia, Avengers..."

"The Avengers would be nice"

"Ah, a Marvel girl I see"

"Yeah, I like Superheroes so, but if you say that's stupid I'm not going to tackle you to the ground" I warn

As he puts the disk into the machine he says "That was pretty good, you know Drago seems to be pretty heard t get down. But with you he could 't even get a chance to breath. Would've wished you net me sooner, would've helped me a lot"

"What do you mean babe?"

"Uh, I mean it's in the past. But eh e I was younger up until I met Toothless, I wasn't the Hiccup you see know. I was called Hiccup the useless by everyone, mostly Snotlout and Dagur. At different course, at school it was my cousin while here was Dagur. He use to try to practie with me, really fun. I did seem to one day think of getting this over with. I remember that day very well, I was thinking of ending my suffering. I was pretty mad I had lost my new gaming system, after Snotlout had deleted it from the computer. Then that's when I got run over by Toothless."

I gestured him to come into the covers"But it's okay now." I say as I cuddle next to him "You've got him and me now. And nothing will break that bond, nothing. As for Snotlout he also seemed to get to pay dues. As for Dagur I hope he rots but that's all Hiccup"

"You know you cheer me up nicely" he says

"Well that's what girlfriends are for" I responds as he kisses me.

The movie starts and we cuddle, "Astrid?" He asks

"Yeah"

"Would you go on a proper date with tommrow night. Say at seven"

"Seven it is" I say as I kiss him "Let's just hope Toothless isn't going to mad about this"

"I highly doubt it, he seemed very happy when Stormfly hugged him after the match. "

I chuckle "She is crazy for him"

"And he might also, he just don't know it."

"True, but..."

"Shhhh, Loki's on screen"

"Hiccup" I whine as I punch his arm, which was a bit hard since we were cuddling

"What, I'm watching the movie."

"Fine" I say "Let's just be happy I didn't pin _you _down"

He chuckles "Well at least you would still ave me right"

"Babe?"

"Yeah" "How do you know about this movie place thing?"

"Hmm, when I was younger my dad, Gibber and I used to watch Kung Fu movies together..it was a guts night as we used to call it. But when I was eight that all ended until I started bringing Toothless here sometimes. And now you, my dad always said that he brought my mom here."

"That's sweet" I say as I hug him.

After a few more kisses and three more scenes of the movie, we fell asleep on the dojo floor. Hearing to faint screams of Hulk smashing Loki to the ground.

Though today had been an exciting day in the month and there was much to be thankful for. Such as my date with Hiccup, and this amazing night. I just wish it will continue like this forever. No more troubles, and no more fears. Just make them disappear.

Hey so I hope this long chapter will make up for my non-updating status. I've just been losing my phone and having like three projects due in the last month sorry. So this story is soon getting to an end, making mostly sure that Haven't Met You Yet is also coming. I actually have several spin off for this series, including a prequel on Stalka. And some stories about Hiccup's office co-worker who SPOILERS are the super six or big four plus frozen. Heheh. So just expect those coming you r way. As for my other stories I'm still working on them, so don't give up your hopes. Heheh. GOD BLESS

YOU.
